Schedule of Class Meetings
February 6,7; March 6,7; April 10,11 (Fridays 6:30-9:30; Saturdays 8:30-4:30)

Course Description
This general introduction to Christianity in the Reformation and Post-Reformation eras focuses on the key persons, movements and ideas that have made significant contributions to the history of the Church. Special attention will be given to exploring how experiences and insights from the Christian past inform contemporary faith and practice. As an outcome of the course, students should have a general grasp of Christian history during these periods and a basic knowledge of the major personalities and ecclesiastical issues.

Relation to Curriculum
This is the second of two basic church history courses required in the Masters programs. There is no prerequisite though it is recommended to take the two history courses in order if possible.

Course Objectives
1. Explore the history of various Protestant traditions of 16th C.
2. Understand the trajectory of these traditions in post-Reformation era
3. Appreciate and critique the faith and practice of the various traditions
4. Reflect on meaning of the traditions for contemporary faith and practice
5. Grasp the basic story of early Evangelicalism in America

Course Requirements
1. Weekend Assignments
   A. Reading - Students will have 11 assignments with readings from the required texts and Scripture that are due by each Friday of the course.

   B. Quizzes - At the beginning of each Saturday morning class session there will be a short cumulative quiz on dates from the assignment sheets. The dates will also be included as a part of the final exam.

   C. Discussion Questions - Students will write a one-page typed response to the discussion questions for each assignment (half page per question, single spaced). Discussion question responses will be due at the beginning of each Friday class session.
D. Due Dates – Assignments 1-3 are due on February 6,7, Assignments 4-7 are due March 6,7, Assignments 8-11 are due April 10,11.

E. Lectures Online – students will listen to select lectures available through iTunesU

Before weekend of February 6,7 listen to these four lectures:

* Jaroslav Pelikan on Martin Luther
* The Late Medieval Period – 01
* The Late Medieval Period – 02
* Renaissance Humanism and the Political Context of the Reformation

Before the weekend of March 6,7 listen to these four lectures:

* Roman Catholic Humanists and Religious Orders
* The History of the Council of Trent
* The Theology of the Council of Trent
* Trent’s View of Justification

To locate the lectures use one of these methods:
1) Link to iTunes U course lectures:

2) Link to RTS Mobile, where the lectures can be listened to/downloaded:
   http://get.theapp.co/3c13 Once you download the app on Apple, Android, or Windows Phone devices you can find the lectures in the Historical Theology category under History of Christianity II

2. Biographical Paper  Each student will choose an individual from Christian history that lived during the 16th – 20th Century and write a 10 -12 page typed paper on this person. The paper must be based upon the reading of a major biography (200 page minimum) on the person. The paper should include a one-page conclusion that is a commentary on the person’s contribution to the church and reflection on insights from the person’s life that might be useful today. A list of sources should be attached. The due date is May 9 (post-marked). Mail the paper to:

   Trish King
   Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary
   2101 Choate Circle
   Charlotte, NC 28226

3. Final Exam  The examination will include essay questions from the required reading and lectures. There will also be short-answer sections on important dates, people and ideas. The final exam will be a take-home exam that will be distributed at the last class session. The due date is April 27 (post-marked). Mail exam and proctor form to address above. No notes or books allowed for taking exam.
4. Reading Report – The Reading Report will be due to the Professor the last day of class, April 11 (see attached). This report will indicate the amount of Required Reading that has been completed during the semester.

Required Texts

Optional iBook for the course: Available for purchase on the iBook store for $9.99 is the History of Christianity II iBook. This interactive book contains the lesson outlines, reading assignments, date quizzes, review questions, and more. Striking imagery and interactive elements bring this course to life and will help you engage and understand this period of church history. The iBook is available on iPads and users running Mavericks OS and above.

Grading
Date Quizzes and Discussion Questions - 25%
Biographical Paper - 25%
Reading Report - 25%
Final Exam - 25%
Grading Scale: A(97-100), A-(94-96), B+(91-93), B (88-90), B-(86-87), C+(83-85), C(80-82), C-(78-79), D+(75-77), D(72-74), D-(70-71), F (69 – )

Class participation
It is required that students be present for all weekend class sessions from Friday at 6:30 until 4:30 dismissal on Saturdays. In an emergency (death in the family or trip to the emergency room), you may notify professor that you have been “providentially hindered” from attendance. It is expected that students will keep current in their reading and hand in assignments on time. Failure to comply with these standards will result in grade reduction.

Academic Standards
Cheating and plagiarism are considered serious breaches of personal and academic integrity. Cheating involves, but is not necessarily limited to, the use of unauthorized sources of information during an examination or the submission of the same (or substantially same) work for credit in two or more courses without the knowledge and consent of the instructors. Plagiarism involves the use of another person’s distinctive ideas or words, whether published or unpublished, and representing them as one’s own instead of giving proper credit to the source. Plagiarism can also involve over dependence on other source material for the scope and substance of one’s writing. Such breaches in academic standards often result in a failing grade as well as other corrective measures. For more information, please consult the Student Handbook.

ADA Policy
The seminary complies with the provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act. A student with a qualifying and authenticated disability who is in need of accommodations, should petition the seminary in accordance with the stated guidelines in the Student Handbook.

Cancellation of Class
In the event the seminary has to cancel a class meeting (impending storm, professor illness, etc.), the Registration Office will send out an email (via the GCTS email account) notification to all students registered in the respective course. If the cancelation occurs the day of the scheduled meeting, the Registration Office will also attempt to contact students via their primary phone contact on record. The professor will contact the students (via GCTS account) regarding makeup. If a weekend class is cancelled, the class will be made up during the scheduled Make-Up weekend (see the academic calendar for the designated dates). For more info, consult your Student Handbook.

Extension Policy
Arrangements for submission of late work at a date on or before the “last day to submit written work”, as noted on the seminary’s Academic Calendar, are made between the student and professor. Formal petition to the Registration Office is not required at this time. This includes arrangements for the rescheduling of final exams.

However, course work (reading and written) to be submitted after the publicized calendar due date, must be approved by the Registration Office. An extension form, available online, must be submitted to the Registration Office prior to the “last day to submit written work.” Requests received after this date will either be denied or incur additional penalty. For a full discussion of this policy, please consult the Student Handbook.

Grades
Grades are posted online within twenty-four hours of receipt from the professor. Students are expected to check their CAMS student portal in order to access posted grades. Those individuals who need an official grade report issued to a third party, should put their request in writing to the Registration Office. Faculty have six weeks from the course work due date to submit a final grade.
Returned Work:
Submitted course work will be returned to the student provided s/he provides a self addressed and postage paid envelope with his/her final work. Work submitted without the appropriate envelope will be destroyed once the grade has been assessed and issued.
