2. CHAPEL MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

Friday night chapel services will resume February 6 for the spring term. If you have gifts and talents that can contribute to the spiritual vitality of our campus, you are encouraged to participate whenever possible. We are seeking students who can serve in the following roles:

- Worship leaders
- Singers
- Musical accompanists
- Hosts and hostesses
- Praying for other students
- Preaching or testimonies (short messages)

**************************************************************************************************************************
If you are interested in volunteering, email Dr. Steve Klipowicz indicating in what ways you wish to serve and what weekends you will be available to help.

3. OVERSEAS MISSIONS PRACTICUM 2009

What are you doing this summer? Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary’s OMP 2009 teams will travel to Zimbabwe, India, Croatia, Thailand/Myanmar/China, Mexico, Ukraine, Lebanon/Syria, and the uttermost parts of the earth. Participants will receive two course credits in missions and the option of two units of mentored ministry. Submit your application by January 23 to kgalinas@gcts.edu. Outstanding library fines for 2008 will be posted to student accounts the third week of January 2009. To avoid having a fine posted to your account, please check with the circulation desk no later than Tuesday, January 19 to make arrangements for payment. Please see the FAQs for an explanation of the library fine policy.

New on the Reference shelf: We continue to add new commentaries to the sets held on the reference shelf. Reference sources cover a wide range of materials in biblical studies, counseling, theology, church history, southern regional history, and practical theology. If you have a suggestion for inclusion on the reference shelf, please email Bob Mayer.

Books on reserve: Required books for January and Spring classes will be going on the reserve shelves during January 2009. Many professors place specific titles on reserve for use by students in the library. Normally, reserve books are to remain in the library, but may be checked out for up to one week with consent of the instructor and the library.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is the standard borrowing period for library books?
Four weeks

Can I renew books online?
Yes, you can renew books online, by phone or in person provided that someone else has not placed a “hold” on the item you wish to renew.

What is the fee for overdue books?
Overdue fines for upstairs books are 25 cents per book per day. Overdue fines for reserve books are $1.00 per book per day. If you accumulate $10.00 in fines you will not be permitted to check out books unless you receive permission from the library.

Can I check out reserve books?
Yes. Professors place specific titles on reserve for use by students in the library. Normally, reserve books are to remain in the library, but may be checked out for up to one week with consent of the instructor and the library. No more than two reserve books may be checked out at one time, and the fine for late reserve books is $1.00 per book per day.

How do I request a book from the South Hamilton campus?
Please consult the Charlotte library homepage at www.gordonconwell.edu/charlotte/library for specific information on requesting books from Goddard library. No more than six books may be requested.

Can I check out books from other seminaries in the area?
Yes, you can check out books from other theological libraries in the Charlotte Theological Library Consortium. The Harold Lindell Library at Gordon-Conwell-Charlotte is a member of the Charlotte Theological Library Consortium (CTLC), a group of seven theological libraries in the greater Charlotte and piedmont region of North Carolina. Gordon-Conwell students enjoy library privileges at each CTLC member institution subject to the rules of the consortium and each member institution. For more information, visit www.atla.com/ctlc/ctlc.html.
7. JOHN AND SUE NEUHS BOOKSTORE

Sacred Encounters from Rome to Jerusalem by GCTS-Charlotte Alumni Tamara Park is now available at the bookstore. The book captures her conversations about God with nuns, spies and backpackers along an ancient pilgrim route. All are welcome to join Tamara for a Book Release Party on January 23 at 7:00 p.m. at Warehouse 242 church.

January and Spring textbooks are now available for purchase. For those of you shopping for the best price, please compare our prices to other sources. We do try to competitively price our books and we often match the price of other retailers. Plus you do not have to worry about shipping or a book being backordered. We encourage you to purchase your books early while we have them in stock. Stop by the bookstore on weekdays until 8:00 p.m. and Saturdays until 2:00 p.m.

Semlink textbooks: The bookstore stocks textbooks for Semlink courses that can be taken as part of a Charlotte degree program. Please contact Alvis Yates to inquire about the availability of Semlink texts.

Regular bookstore hours:
- Monday – Friday open until 8:00 p.m.
- Saturday 9:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.
- We are happy to help you outside of regular bookstore hours provided that you call or email ahead.

8. PRAYER REQUESTS

Gordon-Conwell faculty, staff and students meet on Wednesday mornings in the chapel at 9:15 a.m. to pray for students, the seminary, and special needs that arise. Please join us! Students can place prayer requests in the Prayer Box located in the Seminary break room. Know that we will keep your concerns and requests confidential.

Pray for Dr. Laniak and the students on the current Israel trip for safety.
Pray for student Wayne Dickert who is undergoing medical testing for an acute illness.
