DEAR GORDON-CONWELL - CHARLOTTE STUDENT:

Here is the September 2009 edition of E-Notes. E-Notes is the electronic newsletter for the Gordon-Conwell Seminary community in Charlotte. Monthly up-to-date and relevant information regarding the seminary will be sent to student GCTS mailboxes. If you want to have your E-Notes discontinued, please e-mail Dr. Steve Klipowicz at sklipowi@gcts.edu.

1. DEAN’S DESK

Dear sojourners,

Let me begin by welcoming over one hundred new students to our community! What a treat it is to have your experiences and gifts among us as we begin the journey of a new school year. Whether you have just come through the New Student Orientation or the Integrative Seminar, you are aware of our eagerness to be attentive to God’s Spirit. As the modules launch, let’s be mindful of how God shapes a unique learning and worshiping community in each course. We are active participants in this joint venture with Him.

You have our prayers,
Dr. Tim Laniak, Dean

2. INTEGRATIVE SEMINAR MAKE-UP PROCEDURE

Students who wish to make up the recent fall integrative seminar, “Seminary or Cemetary?” should complete the following procedure:

- Obtain make-up video from the library desk and view. Video will be ready September 21.
- Complete a four-page interactive essay reflecting on the video presentation. If you completed the seminar pre-assignment, simply return that instead of the essay.

• Turn in essay to Dr. Steve Klipowicz along with a $25 check for make-up charges (Make sure you include your student number).

Make-ups should be completed by November 1, 2009.

The Spring Integrative Seminar is scheduled for January 30, 2010. The theme is “Maintenance or Mission? Posturing the Church for Ministry in the Post-Christian Culture.”

3. CHAPEL MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

If you have gifts and talents that can contribute to the spiritual vitality of our campus, you are encouraged to participate in Friday night chapel services whenever possible. We are seeking students who can serve in the following roles:

• Worship leaders
• Singers
• Musical accompanists
• Hosts and hostesses
• Praying for other students
• Preaching or testimonies (short messages)

If you are interested in volunteering, email our Chapel Fellow, Matt Hemsley, indicating in what ways you wish to serve and what weekends you will be available to help.

4. GCTS STUDENT LODGING NETWORK

GCTS - Charlotte has several families willing to provide free or inexpensive lodging for out-of-town students. If you are seeking to save lodging costs by staying with a local family during weekend or week-long module classes, please email Denise Flanders. Additionally, if you have a guest room that you would like to make available to students on Friday nights during the school year or if you know someone who does, please email Denise Flanders.

Carpool List:
If you will be driving to class this fall from the Pinehurst area, contact Brian Gronewoller about carpooling at bgronewoller@gmail.com.

5. THE LIBRARY NOOK

Library Hours:
• Monday - Friday 8:30 a.m. – 10:00 p.m.
• Saturday 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Change in BibleWorks access: Because of changes in the seminary's license agreement initiated this summer by BibleWorks, GCTS will no longer be able to provide remote access through CITRIX, beginning on September 26, 2009. In light of this change, please note:

- BibleWorks will continue to be available at each campus, on library and/or computer lab computers.
- BibleWorks will be available for purchase at a greatly reduced price ($250 - a savings of $90) from the Gordon-Conwell South Hamilton BookCentre. This offer is available from September 8-18 and is available to students from all seminary campuses. To order, contact the BookCentre at the South Hamilton campus by phone (978.646.4015) or by email (books@gcts.edu). There will be an $8.00 shipping fee for those who cannot pick up their copy at one of the four GCTS campuses. An email will be sent notifying purchasers when BibleWorks is available for pick-up.

Proctoring Policy: Please note the new library policy for proctoring exams and quizzes. Students are expected to make every effort to have their exams proctored outside of the seminary before scheduling a proctoring appointment with the registrar’s office. Students having exams proctored in the library must read and sign a one-page statement of library proctoring policies before beginning their proctored exams.

New on the Reference shelf: Ancient Christian Doctrine series edited by Thomas Oden and Gerald Bray, volumes 1 and 2. This five-volume set expounds the doctrine of the Nicene Creed and offers contemporary readers the opportunity to study for themselves key writings of the early church. “Following each phrase of the creed, the volumes present selections from the works of the early church which best illuminate its meaning as early Christians understood it.” Structured in the same manner as the Ancient Christian Commentary series, students taking courses in church history and theology will find this an especially welcome resource. It is located with the reference sets at REF BT98.W4. We anticipate that the last three volumes will be released within the coming several months.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is the standard borrowing period for library books?
Four weeks

Can I renew books online?
Yes, you can renew books online, by phone or in person provided that someone else has not placed a “hold” on the item you wish to renew.

What is the fee for overdue books?
Overdue fines for upstairs books are 25 cents per book per day. Overdue fines for reserve books are $1.00 per book per day. If you accumulate $10.00 in fines you will not be permitted to check out books unless you receive permission from the library.

Can I check out reserve books?
Yes. Professors place specific titles on reserve for use by students in the library. Normally, reserve books are to remain in the library, but may be checked out for up to one week with consent of the instructor and the library. No more than two reserve books may be checked out at one time, and the fine for late reserve books is $1.00 per book per day.

How do I request a book from the South Hamilton campus?
Please consult the Charlotte library homepage at www.gordonconwell.edu/charlotte/library for specific information on requesting books from Goddard library. No more than six books may be requested.

Can I check out books from other seminaries in the area?
Yes, you can check out books from other theological libraries in the Charlotte Theological Library Consortium. The Harold Lindsell Library at Gordon-Conwell-Charlotte is a member of the Charlotte Theological Library Consortium (CTLC), a group of seven theological libraries in the greater Charlotte and piedmont region of North Carolina. Gordon-Conwell students enjoy library privileges at each CTLC member institution subject to the rules of the consortium and each member institution. For more information, visit www.atla.com/ctlc/ctlc.html.
