1. THE DEAN’S DESK

Dear brothers and sisters,

As we celebrate our twentieth anniversary year, I encourage all of you to join in as many activities as possible. Our biggest event will center around the Museum of the Bible exhibit on Feb. 9-13. Please see our website for details on this and a variety of other opportunities at www.gordonconwell.edu/charlotte/Anniversary.cfm. I want to invite you all to sign up for the weekly electronic anniversary devotional featuring writers from our trustees, presidents, faculty, staff, and students at http://my.gordonconwell.edu/sower-and-seed.

Let me also take this occasion to welcome students in our new hybrid MAR program. Students in this program (and any others who have joined them) are taking 8-week intensive courses with online and in-residency components. This is yet one more way for the Charlotte campus to deliver an adult model of transformational education. Every ministry context is a “branch campus” and every one of you is a “satellite campus”!

May God bless you as we turn the calendar page and look to him afresh with memory and imagination.

Timothy S. Laniak
Dean and Professor of Old Testament

Student Volunteers Needed for the ‘Museum of the Bible Exhibit’

Gordon-Conwell Charlotte will be hosting an exhibit of The Green Collection, a compilation of 40,000 biblical antiquities, from February 10-13, 2012. The exhibit will be moving to the Vatican after its stay at Gordon-Conwell so this is a great opportunity to see a world renowned Bible exhibit. We are in need of student volunteers to work as ushers and ticket takers during those three days. Each day will be divided into two six-hour shifts, and we will need roughly ten students per shift. Your help will be greatly appreciated.

To sign up please register at www.SignUpGenius.com/go/theliving, or you can contact Scott Smith in the Dean’s Office at 704-527-9909 ext.5833.

The library now has a lost and found box where items are collected that are left in the library. If a student suspects that something has gone missing, please speak to someone at the circulation desk or contact the library by phone at (704) 940-5821 or email hlibrary@gordonconwell.edu. Proof of ownership is required for claiming.

Library Website: The libraries of Gordon-Conwell are pleased to offer a new design to the website. Now it’s easier than ever before to find print and electronic resources, contact library staff, and utilize helpful tutorials. New website orientation videos are available plus a new section to keep up on the latest library news. For information about the new functionality please contact the Library technologist, Matt Wasielewski, at mattwaz@gcts.edu.

Robert C. Cooley Collection Usage Policy for Researchers: In addition to the print resources, the Center contains a research computer with the latest software and technological resources designed to enhance research in biblical studies and early Christianity. Students and researchers interested in the specific resources available can find them listed here. Researchers and students wishing to use the collection for specific research projects must make an appointment by contacting the library director, Dr. Robert Mayer.
Reminder: When you use a reference book or other text in the library, please do not re-shelve the book. We have had a number of books mis-shelved which means that other students cannot find them. Metrolina Midwinter Conference: Gordon-Conwell Seminary and the Metrolina Baptist Association announce the mid-winter EQUIP & RENEW conference featuring our own President, ethics lecturer Dr. Dennis Hollinger. The Metrolina Midwinter Conference, open to students and alums, will be held Tuesday January 31, 2012 from 8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at GCTS – Charlotte. Dr. Hollinger is a frequent speaker in churches, pastors' conferences, seminars, colleges and academic forums, and is the author of 3 books dealing with ethics, including his newest “The Meaning of Sex.” (2010)

In his book, Dennis Hollinger counters the confusion, arguing for an inherent, God-given meaning to sex. This meaning provides a framework for a wholistic biblical sexual ethic that adequately addresses contemporary moral issues, such as premarital sex, sex within marriage, homosexuality, reproductive technologies, and faithful living in a sex-saturated world.

- Our two sessions on the conference day (Tuesday) will focus on workplace ethics and sexual ethics, and will examine the Christian’s response to the challenge of our morally rudderless age. At the end of the two presentations, a roundtable of local leaders will discuss application points.
- A buffet luncheon will be provided within the small registration fee of $15, but for alumni & current students the cost is only $10. However, registration is required. Register at the front desk before 1/25; for more information call or email Dr. Alison Littauer at 704-527-9909 or alittauer@gordonconwell.edu.
