1. THE DEAN'S DESK

Dear brothers and sisters in the GCTS community,

I trust you are off to a good start during this new school year. We are excited about our campaign for re-envisioning the Charlotte programs and expanding the Charlotte campus. More on that to come. We are also thrilled to have a role in the Passages exhibit now open at 8405 IBM Drive in Charlotte (www.explorepassages.com). GCTS is co-hosting the lecture series that begins Tuesday, Sep. 18 and continues through February. Please bring your church, family and friends to this wonderful exhibit. Let any of us on staff know how we can better keep you connected and if there are ways we can better support your journey through seminary as you progress one semester at a time.

God bless you,
Dr. Tim Laniak, Dean

This summer we have added new titles in theology, biblical studies, church history, missions and Christian ethics. Over the next several weeks we will purchase a variety of new volumes related to Christian leadership and the counseling program.

Two new volumes have just been added to Reference and Cooley shelves that you will find especially helpful:

The two-volume Oxford Encyclopedia of South Asian Christianity (2011) focuses on Christianity in India, Pakistan, and other countries in this large region. Students engaged in historical and missions related studies will find this work of value to research.

The Oxford Encyclopedia of Ancient Egypt (2000) has just been added to the collection at the request of Dr. Cathy McDowell. This three-volume work will be helpful for students engaged in Ancient Near Eastern studies as well as Old Testament studies and exegesis.

The library director welcomes your suggestions for books to add to the Gordon-Conwell Charlotte library. Please contact him at bmayer@gcts.edu with any suggestions that you have for the collection.
