Journey the Ancient Silk Road while studying Major World Religions

Study in Uzbekistan and Turkey earn 3 course credits

- Immerse yourself in the culture and traditions of Central Asia.
- Gain deeper insight into the history of major world religions.
- Examine the interaction of trade, translation and world religions along the Old Silk Road.
- Visit Silk Route cities such as Tashkent, Samarkand, Bukhara and Khiva.
- Be captured by the colors, design and artistry of buildings more than 2,000 years old.
- Debrief in Istanbul, Turkey while visiting Silk Road sites like the Hagia Sophia.
- Interact with Central Asian Christians and church leaders.

Faculty Leader: Dr. Todd Johnson, Director of the Center for the Study of Global Christianity

What: “Religions on the Silk Road: From Antiquity to the Present” (CH/TH-621)
Where: Uzbekistan and Turkey
When: May 23 – June 14, 2018

http://www.gordonconwell.edu/silk_road

Contact Dr. Todd Johnson (tjohnson@gcts.edu) or Dr. Mary Ann Hollinger (mhollinger@gcts.edu) for more information.