CH/TH 621 Religions on the Silk Road: From Antiquity to the Present
Global Education Course in Uzbekistan
May 23-June 14, 2018
Professor: Todd M. Johnson, Ph.D.

Course description
This course explores the history of religions on the Silk Road from antiquity to the present examining the impact of trade, translation, and interaction of world religions from Venice, Italy to Chang’an, China. The course will be based on lectures, reading, visiting historic sites, and discussions of the texts, art, music and film related to religions on the Silk Road.

Onsite benefits
The course will be held in cities formerly on the ancient Silk Road. We will begin in Tashkent, Uzbekistan and go overland from there to Samarkand, Bukhara, Khiva, and Feghana. On the way back to Boston we will stop for debriefing in Istanbul, Turkey where we will visit additional historical sites such as the Hagia Sophia. Accommodations will clean, safe, and modest.

Learning Outcomes
Students who participate in “Religions on the Silk Road” will:
1. Gain a basic understanding of the history of each of the major world religions.
2. Study the impact of Silk Road trade on the spread and development of the world’s religions.
3. Become familiar with the cartography and geography of the Silk Road.
4. Understand the dynamics of cultural and religious exchange.
5. Begin to discern the current situation on the Silk Road and its implication for the future of trade and religion.
