Dear XXXXX:

As President of the seminary, I want to express how honored we will be on Saturday, May 12, 2012 when we confer a Gordon-Conwell degree to Full Name. No doubt you too recognize the milestone this will be in First Name’s life.

This achievement represents more than the mere completion of a graduate program in biblical and theological studies. It is the capstone of a multi-year commitment and unwavering dedication to a rigorous academic program that also emphasizes practical skills and character development of the whole person before the Lord. We are grateful for the labor of love exhibited by each one of the over 300 graduates on our four campuses.

Thank you for your gracious support of First Name during this time of arduous preparation and development. We are grateful to God for your prayers, for every act of kindness and support, and for every encouragement you gave along the way. The part you played as a partner with us in the full development of our graduate has been deeply appreciated.

Therefore, we congratulate your graduate and rejoice with you, for all of this is the working of our God to the honor and glory of His name.

Sincerely,

Dennis P. Hollinger, Ph.D.
President &
