5. Stott, The Living Church: Convictions of a Lifelong Pastor, Inter-Varsity (at least 75 pp.)
6. Swetland, Facing Messy Stuff in the Church: Case Studies for Pastors and Congregations, Kregel (at least 2 cases)
7. Tidball, Ministry by the Book: New Testament patterns for pastoral leadership, Apollos (an imprint of British Inter-Varsity) (at least 100 pp.)
8. Wilson and Hoffmann, Preventing Ministry Failure, Inter-Varsity (at least 100 pp.)

Additional recommended (not required) readings will be identified during various class lectures.

Requirements:

1. Attend class sessions and participate in discussions. Submit an attendance report on the form provided noting reasons for any absences. NB: Students who miss more than 4 classes will fail the course even if all reading and written work is completed satisfactorily.

2. Read 1,200 pages from the required books and supplemental reading. The professor’s approval is not required for your selection of supplemental reading, but all reading must relate in some way to pastoral ministry. Journal articles may be counted as 2 to 4 pages. Audiotapes or CDs may be counted as 30 pages of reading per hour of tape/CD with an upper limit of 4 hours (120 pages). Reading done in connection with writing the papers counts in the total reading. Minimum reading from each of the required textbooks must be done or a penalty will be assessed. Also, reading less than 1,200 pages will result in a penalty. If you have read from the required books in another course, please note this on the reading report; you do not need to read the books again, but if you do, you may count the pages. In any case, 1,200 pages of reading for this course must be read for full credit.

3. Submit an annotated reading report, with at least two or three paragraphs of comments on each article or book read. Do not report on the content of the item, but rather reflect on how you interacted with the material in terms of questions raised, insights gained, areas to be explored further, etc. Give the bibliographic reference to the work at the beginning of each work cited, then make your comments, followed by noting the total pages read from each work. On the last page of the report give the total pages of all materials read for the course. The report should be 6 to 8 pages in length, and should reflect quality more than quantity.

4. Paper on 4 Pastoral Events: Write an Order of Service (1 to 2 pp. each) for each of the following services: (1) Baptism, (2) Lord’s Supper/Eucharist, (3) Wedding, and (4) Funeral. On each paper, include details such as call to worship (Scripture vv. only or brief litany), hymns and songs (titles only), responsive reading (Bible text only), gist of pastoral prayer, benediction, etc. For the sermon part of the service, state the textual reference and provide an outline or summary of the sermon. Include the event in question in the service order and give brief details of what you will say in that part of the service.
   - Be concise. Complete sentences are not necessary, but cover the service from beginning to ending.
   - Students who follow a Book of Order for these events (e.g. Book of Common Prayer, or PCUSA Book of Order) may note the section to be used in the paper, but should (1) fill in any details of how they might personalize the service as well as (2) give more details on the sermon outline/summary.
   - Students not intending to enter pastoral ministry may substitute a similar project for 1 or more of the 4 events—e.g., leading a retreat, conducting a teacher-training session, planning a missions conference, etc. Permission for the substitution must be granted by the professor.

5. Case Study Assignment and Report: Select 1 case study of interest to you from Facing Messy Stuff in the Church and spend around 90 minutes with 1 to 3 other people in the class discussing the issues portrayed in the case. Spouses are welcome to participate in the discussion if desired. Write a 2-page reflection paper on the case, beginning with brief comments on the composition of the group and the schedule followed. Primary focus should be on critical issues raised in your discussion; use the questions at the end of each case as a guide for the discussion. Be sure to comment on how you would handle the situation as a pastoral leader if you were involved in the case as portrayed. Quality and depth of interaction will determine the grade.

Requirements for all Written Work:
- Do not put papers in any kind of binding or use a title page.
- Put your name and box number at the top of page one & clip or staple the pages.
- Use single-space within a paragraph, and double-space between paragraphs.
- Footnotes are not needed.
- Use 12-point type; do not use a sans serif font.
- Submit each paper in a 9 x 12 envelope with your name and box number on the outside, which will be used to return the paper to you. If the paper is to be returned to you by mail off campus, please include the correct postage on the envelope.
- No written work may be submitted as email attachments.

Summary of Due Dates for Written Work:
- Nov. 2  4 Events Paper
Nov. 30  Case Study Report

Dec. 21 (Dec. 10 for Jan. grads):  (1) attendance report; (2) annotated reading report

NB: Written work may be submitted at any class, or placed in my campus box.

NB: No work may be submitted after the dates of Dec. 10 for January grads or Dec. 21, 2010 for continuing students without written approval from the Registration Office. No exceptions can be made to this Seminary policy.

Grading:

- 20% - paper on case study
- 30% - paper on 4 pastoral events
- 40% - reading total and annotated bibliography
- 100% - The maximum total of points is 100.

NB: A failing grade will result if a student misses more than 4 class sessions but completes all other work satisfactorily since class discussion is an important dynamic in the course.

In keeping with the grade scale defined in The Student Handbook, a grade of A is given for high excellence, B for exceeding minimal achievement, C for attaining a basic understanding of materials, D for a low passing mark indicating below basic mastery of material, and F for failing the course.

NB: Plagiarism is usually not an issue in this class, but if you are interested in seeing a document defining plagiarism and giving examples, the faculty of the seminary recommend students access the information on the Indiana University website: http://indiana.edu/~wts/plagiarism.html

Family Members Attending: Spouses or special friends are welcome to attend the class as non-participants if their schedule permits. A courtesy request of the professor is expected in such cases. It is not appropriate for children of students to accompany their parent to the class, however, because of the nature of some of the topics to be discussed.

Recording of Class Sessions: Students may record a given class for use by a fellow student who may be absent at that class or for their own personal use only. No duplication of the recording or distribution to others is to be done.

Lunch Sessions: 2 or 3 lunch sessions will be scheduled following class during the semester for students who would like to discuss ministry issues with the professor. Attendance is voluntary, and participation will not affect the grade.
