1. Course Objectives
In this course students will become familiar with the content of the entire Old Testament, with specific attention being given to the flow of the biblical story and its major themes (Gordon-Conwell Mission Statement: Priority # 1). Students will discover how each book fits into the larger redemptive-historical narrative of the Old Testament. It is expected that at the completion of the course, students will be able to demonstrate knowledge of the Old Testament, being able to recall and identify key people, events and dates in the Old Testament, and being able to identify the main message and historical context of individual books. Resources beneficial for the study and application of the Old Testament for preaching and Bible study will be noted throughout the course.

2. Course Requirements
Case Exams: The course grade will be determined on the basis of a mid-term exam (worth 30%) and a final exam (worth 70%). Both the mid-term and final exams will consist of a series of multiple choice and short-answer questions, which will demonstrate your knowledge of key dates, events and people of the Old Testament. These questions will also test your knowledge of the content of individual books, with focus being given to the main message and historical context of each book. Lastly, multiple choice questions related to the theology of the Old Testament will be included in the final exam.

Old Testament: You are required to read the entire Old Testament for this course. You will be asked on the final exam to indicate what percentage of the Old Testament you have read. Since the Old Testament is required reading, this means that failure to complete the readings will result in points being deducted, and may result in a 1/3 grade penalty (A grade would become A-) up to a full grade penalty.

CASKET EMPTY Old Testament Reader: As a supplement to the biblical material, you are required to read the textbook, CASKET EMPTY: God's Plan of Redemption through History. Old Testament Reader, in its entirety. You will be asked on the final exam to indicate what percentage of the Reader you have completed.
Failure to complete the readings will result in points being deducted, and may result in a 1/3 grade penalty (A grade would become A-).

Teach one Bible Study Lesson: As part of this course, you are required to teach one study from the CASKET EMPTY Old Testament Bible Study. You may choose any study out of the ten Bible studies, and it can be done either in your church or with a seminary group. I would recommend that you speak to your pastor from your local church at the beginning of the semester (and pray about it!) to ask for this kind of opportunity. If you are unable to find a group, you will be assigned a group comprising of students from class. This will become your “group” for your Bible study. You will be asked on the final exam to state whether you have completed this requirement. Failure to complete this will result in 5 points being deducted from your final score.

Please turn off your cell phone at the beginning of each class; surfing on the web during class is strictly prohibited.
