Introduction:

The book of Exodus fulfills a vital role in biblical theology. Yahweh rescues people for relationship! In delivering the Hebrews from slavery and providing a place of worship, Yahweh reveals his power, his will, and his character to Israel. Imagine how the Old Testament would read if you extract this book from the storyline. Exodus is a linch pin in the story of redemptive history. As such it lays the foundation for the terms of the relationship governing the people of God in the New Testament.

I. Course Objectives:

1. The primary objective of the course is to train students to observe and interpret Hebrew narrative in order to teach and preach effectively. Exegetical methodology will be introduced and practiced using various texts in Exodus. The outcome of this objective will be realized through required readings and the exegesis paper.

Although methodology is the focus, this class is more than a mere methods class. It will be devotional. I want you to experience the Bible and the Old Testament with a view to the latter. Times of worship and prayer will be built into the schedule in order to meet this objective.

2. To move students to an introductory level of Intermediate Hebrew Grammar. This will entail reading and translating @ TEN chapters in Exodus. The outcome of this objective will be realized in three course quizzes (see schedule below for texts and dates)

3. To emphasize the independent yet dependent nature of interpreting the text. The outcome of this objective will be realized in exegetical exercises, lectures, and the final exegesis paper.
II. Required Texts:
BHS on Exodus and Leviticus (consult book center)

On Reserve:
Ryken, L. Words of Delight (pgs. 11-156)
Wurthwein,E. The Text of the Old Testament (Intro thru pg. 44)
Walsh, J. Style & Structure in Biblical Hebrew Narrative (pgs. 117-190)
Goldfajn, T. Word Order and Time in Biblical Hebrew Narrative (for review)
Stuart, D. Exodus.
NIV Archaeological Study Bible (Intro on pgs. 85-154)
Motyer, J. A. The Revelation of the Divine Name

III. Course Requirements and Evaluation

1. Initial Hebrew competency exam: All students must pass a basic Hebrew language exam in order to continue in the course (pg 88 GCTS Catalog). The exam will be given the first week of classes. In order to receive a passing grade and stay in the class, you must have 60 points or more out of 100.

2. Continued Hebrew competency: “At both the OT 600 and OT 700 levels, competence in Hebrew must be demonstrated by the student in all aspects of the course in order for a passing grade to be assigned, regardless of how the course grade is otherwise computed”(pg 88 GCTS Catalog). A detailed exegesis of this catalog statement will be given in class!

3. Exegesis Paper on Exodus 34:5-7 (45% of grade)
The paper should not exceed 30 pages. It should be 12 pt font and double spaced. Form and style should conform to the standard provided in the SBL Handbook of Style. Please use footnotes rather than endnotes. Sample exegesis papers are available for reference and detailed guidelines will be offered. Due December 17th by 5:00 p.m.
4. Three Course Quizzes (45% of grade)
   a. Hebrew translation and parsing from the set texts in Exodus with limited use of the lexicon for each quiz.
   b. Short answers that primarily concern exegetical methodology (but information from required readings and class material is also fair game).

PLEASE NOTE: There is NO FINAL for this course. Each quiz will be assessed and the cumulative score out of 45% will be given.

5. Class participation, AND attendance, AND required/reserved readings (10% of grade) Students are expected to translate according to the class schedule. As a result you will be called upon to contribute to class discussions. Class participation and attendance is, therefore, required. Seminary policy states that a letter grade penalty is assessed for an absence of more than 3 hours.

Likewise, the weekly reading assignments (required and reserve) for each class are NOT OPTIONAL. At the end of the term I will give you a reading report for submission with your exegesis paper. In order to receive full credit the required texts and select chapters from reserve material must be read not skimmed in their entirety. Partial credit is not available.

6. All late work will receive a letter grade per week penalty.
