Catalog Description: Practical theological foundation for the practice of evangelistic leadership in the church. Includes content and communication of the gospel within cultural context at home and abroad. Preparation in class, followed by community experience. Prayer is primary throughout.

Introduction

This course is at the very heart of preparation for ministry, because evangelism is near to the heart of God. Jesus declared that he came to seek and to save the lost (Luke 19:10). Following our Lord, our evangelistic witness is a reflection of our vital relationship with God. The Apostle Peter reminds us (I Peter 2:9), “you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.” Peter had learned his lesson well from our Lord Jesus himself, who declared (Matthew 5:14,16), “You are the light of the world…let your light shine.” Prior to his ascension, Jesus clarified his heart’s desire as he gave his unambiguous last will and testament to his church: the priority to win the lost, to make disciples through Spirit-empowered witness (Matthew 28:19-20; Acts 1:8).

Christian witness in the early church was spontaneous and contagious, a natural outflow of the love and passionate devotion to Jesus Christ that the believers shared in common. Their love for one another was shared, in turn, with their own surrounding communities, thus fulfilling the Lord’s “new commandment” (John 13:34,35). Gospel witness was both “taught” and “caught,” and “the Lord added to the church daily those who were being saved” (Acts 2:47). This same healthy pattern has continued throughout church history whenever God’s revived people have responded to his clarion call, and is evidenced in our own day in places as diverse as China, Korea, Africa, Latin America, and Eastern Europe.

Unfortunately, today the topic of evangelism in our own country often evokes dread rather than delight and guilt rather than gratefulness. What a tragic reversal of the desire of God’s heart, and of his biblical blueprint for his church! Many seminarians sadly confess that they feel woefully inadequate to pastor God’s church in evangelistic witness and disciple-making. Some have never themselves led another person to saving faith in Jesus Christ. Others have engaged in personal witness, but are at a loss to know how to lead a church in becoming a witness to their own community and to the world.

This course is designed to guide students to draw near to God in the evangelistic mission of the church. Beginning with a solid biblical and theological foundation, students experience the meaning of evangelism in their own lives through ongoing vital prayer and personal practice in and out of class. From the fearful beginner to the seasoned veteran, we learn that we need one another, as we follow the Lord and accomplish his purposes in his power.
CLASS OVERVIEW & REQUIREMENTS

Due Dates as Indicated Below
“End of Term” Date is Dec. 12, 4:00pm at my office, Lower Library #123 [Graduating Seniors, Dec. 5]

As one former student expressed, “The course is truly choreographed, and I pray that I will continue the rhythm of the dance for the rest of my life.” As long as you do not allow yourself to get behind each step of the way, you will discover the satisfaction of the learning in process and of the culmination of learning at the end of the term.

I. READING  (40% of the Final Course Grade)

The texts provide a practical foundation for leading an individual to become a true follower of the Lord Jesus Christ, and will prepare you for the praxis components of the class.

Submit the Reading Report Sheet for all of the required reading (Appendix A), which includes opportunity for you to indicate optional extra credit reading of your own choice.

Required Reading

- Knowing God Personally Packet. Multiplication Ministries, Vista, CA.

EXAMINATIONS ON THE READING

Examinations on designated textbooks only (listed below on the class schedule) will be short answer essay.

I will provide study guides so there should be no surprises, and you can do well on the exams if you prepare well for them. There are 4 exams, and I will drop your lowest grade of the 4.

“Pop quizzes” on the remainder of the readings are possible but improbable as long as the class comes evidently prepared for discussion and application of the day’s assigned works.
II. PRAXIS STRUCTURE & ACTIVITIES (60% of the Final Course Grade)

The course includes a major praxis components under the direction of the professor:

- Prayer Partnership in class of 2 or 3 students each who stay together during the term in order to (1) pray for one another and for “Loved Ones” (family/friends/neighbors you identify as needing to come to saving faith and discipleship), (2) prepare for and practice evangelism praxis exercises in class, including your own written testimonies and your presentation for sharing the gospel with a person who asks you how s/he can become a follower of the Lord Jesus Christ.

- Church Prayer Support Team of at least 3 persons in addition to yourself that you assemble from within your church to pray for you and your activities in this class, and especially for your Loved Ones. From this assignment you gain experience in building a vital prayer team for your ministry in this class and for the future. Record your fulfillment of this requirement on the Praxis Report Sheet (Appendix E) and append your 3 sample “Prayer Support Letters (Emails)”.

- 2 Personal Testimonies.
  - Testimony #1 is any true autobiographical story where God evidently intervened in your life, but does not include your conversion story per se. This assignment includes your submitting your work to someone in the community (Editor) who to the best of your knowledge is not a Christian. See Appendix B.
  - Testimony #2 is a different autobiographical story from above and includes both (a) your own conversion story or if you do not have an identifiable “date/time/place” for your conversion you can share an occasion when you knew unambiguously that you were a disciple/follower of the Lord Jesus Christ and how this made a difference in your life , and (b) your own Gospel Presentation for a person who comes prepared by the Holy Spirit and asks you how s/he can become a follower of Christ. This assignment also includes your submitting your work to someone in the community (Editor) who to the best of your knowledge is not a Christian; this individual may be the same as for Testimony #1 if you wish. – For this person you may either include or exclude (b) the Gospel Presentation. See Appendix C.
  - Guidance is provided in class for your writing of both testimonies as well as practice with other students.

- Community Service for at least 5 hours in either (1) a prison visit which is scheduled through the class or (2) other volunteer community ministry such as a soup kitchen, nursing home, etc. which you may arrange on your own. “Witnessing” in this context is defined “by deed” (including your presence & prayer for God’s Presence) and as you have opportunity “by word” for those you are serving. Record your fulfillment of this requirement on the Praxis Report Sheet (Appendix E).

- Pastor Conferences. Two personal conferences with your pastor to share with him/her what you are learning and to seek your pastor’s counsel and encouragement [one near beginning of the semester, & one near the end of the semester]. Guidance is provided for you in Appendix D.

III. OPTIONAL EXTRA CREDIT (Up to 10% of the Final Course Grade)

If you wish you may choose one or both of the following (up to 5% each, or a total of 10%):

- Evangelism Resource Notebook (see Appendix F for instructions)
- Evangelism Leadership Retreat (see Appendix G for instructions)

REVIEW & EXAMINATIONS ON THE READING

EXAMS ON THE FOLLOWING READINGS: 30%

(Lowest Grade Will Be Dropped)

Exam #1, Everts & Schaupp, I Once Was Lost
Exam #2, McKnight, A Community Called Atonement, Prologue, Ch. 1 & Part I
Exam #3, McKnight, A Community Called Atonement, Part II
Exam #4, McKnight, A Community Called Atonement, Parts III, IV

Completion of all Reading (Appendix A) 10%

PRAXIS IN CLASS AND IN THE COMMUNITY 60%

See above, “II” (p. 3)

Because of the inherent praxis nature of this class, attendance at all class sessions is vital. Your student colleagues are depending upon you to “be there” for them (e.g., prayer partnership, in-class exercises, etc.), just as it will be important for you to rest in the confidence that they “are there” for you. Therefore, your attendance and participation, and your being in class on time, will weigh heavily in your final grade.

Testimony #1 20%
Testimony #2 20%
Praxis Report Sheet 20%

You must receive a grade of “B” or better on both Testimony #1 and Testimony #2 (including Gospel Presentation) in order to receive a passing grade for the class.

EXTRA CREDIT Up to 10%

See page 3 for a description of the extra credit.

NOTE:

Submit all of your work in a large envelope with the following written on the envelope:

- Middle of the Envelope – Your Name [not mine] & P.O. Box.
- Upper Left Hand Corner – Your Name, Email Address & Tel. Number including area code.

Do not seal or clasp the envelope – I will return your work in this envelope, and you may use the same envelope again and again during the term.

NO FOLDERS OR NOTEBOOKS, PLEASE. If you do not have a campus post office box, or you would prefer that I mail your work to your home, please provide self-addressed envelope(s) with correct postage.

Make copies of all of your work or “Save” on your computer, since materials occasionally become lost.

___ NOT APPROVED. Please revise & resubmit prior to sharing with your editor.

___ Approved for submitting to your editor.

NOTE: If you need to improve and resubmit your work, please attend to any items that may be checked below. [If not checked, the item does not pertain to your work]. EVERY TIME YOU SUBMIT YOUR PAPER, INCLUDE THIS SAME EVALUATION SHEET IN YOUR RE-SUBMISSION.

1. Is your testimony interesting / attention-getting for the listener?

   ___ Develop your LEAD SENTENCE [LEAD QUESTION] to be OF MORE INTEREST TO THE LISTENER. Introduce your testimony in a way that RELATES TO THEM. (e.g., “Have you ever wondered…?” e.g., “What would you say to someone who…?”)

   ___ INTRODUCE YOUR PRIMARY THEME more evidently. (e.g., loneliness, or fear, or boredom, or doubt, or rejection, or…IN YOUR OWN WORDS AND WITH YOUR OWN EXPRESSIONS.)

   ___ CARRY THROUGH WITH YOUR PRIMARY THEME FROM BEGINNING TO END. There should be a thread from the first paragraph to the last.

   ___ Transition (segue) from one paragraph to the next.

   ___ Reduce the length without taking from the substance.

2. Is your testimony inviting the listener to dialog?

   ___ Write in a way so that the listener will want to have conversation with you. Your invitation may be direct, or you may be indirect but with an inviting style.

3. Is your testimony bridging from your personal story to a later sharing of the gospel story?

4. Is your testimony free of jargon meaningless to the listener?

   ___ I have circled all “religious” or “Christianese” words or phrases. Either eliminate them and replace with meaningful alternatives, or define/explain/illustrate them.

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS FROM DR. SCHUTZ:
After I evaluate your work and give you PRELIMINARY APPROVAL (see Appendix B₁), you may move forward to this present FINAL EVALUATION & GRADING (Appendix B₂).

Find a volunteer editor:
(a) Get the permission of at least one person who to the best of your knowledge is not a Christian to help you with this “seminary” assignment [explain you are training to be a Christian pastor].
(b) Tell them the purpose of the assignment is to share a story of a time in your life when God was very real to you.
(c) Give them a copy of your written work, and as you read together ask them to identify any areas that may be unclear to them, and to help you express more clearly what you want to say.
(d) Ask them if they want to share a time in their life when God was very real to them.

For this FINAL EVALUATION & GRADING, hand in to me (1) Appendix B₁—Cover Sheet, (2) Appendix B₂—Cover Sheet, (3) the work you submitted to your editor with editor’s comments to you, (4) your final revised paper that takes into consideration your editor’s comments.

If your editor has no comments, you will of course submit only one document. Clearly indicate for each document at the top of the page, “Before Editor’s Comments” or “After Editor’s Comments” or “No Comments from Editor”.

I can not grade your paper until your work has been edited. Please see me if you need help on this assignment. Work without the above “editor” will not be graded, and will result in an “F” for the assignment.

YOU MUST RECEIVE A MINIMUM OF A “B” GRADE TO PASS THE CLASS.

Give the person’s name who is assisting you: _____________________________________________

NOTE: If you wish to improve your work, you may do so and hand in the original as well as the subsequent drafts, up to the last day of class meeting but not beyond the last day of class. I will evaluate and grade each draft separately, and only the highest mark will be calculated in your final grade.

At the end of the term, you will resubmit all assignments handed in during the term.

1. Is your testimony interesting / attention-getting for the listener?

2. Is your presentation free of jargon meaningless to the listener?
   A. All items circled need to be explained and/or used with more common synonyms and/or illustrated with words or pictures.
   B. You present theological concepts too rapidly for the naïve hearer to understand. Take more time to develop these concepts simply and step by step.

3. Are the necessary elements of the Good News presented accurately & logically?
   A. You need to develop sin and/or repentance more adequately.
   B. You need to develop a clear and understandable presentation of the atonement.
   C. You need to mention Jesus’ resurrection and its significance.
   D. Other: __________________________________________________________

4. Are there adequate questions for you to discern if the listener understands the meaning of what you are saying?
   A. You need to ask questions explicitly.
   B. Ask questions that help you determine if the listener understands what you are saying.
   C. Change your questions from being close-ended (“yes/no”) answers to open-ended.

5. Do you give a clear personal invitation to the person to become a follower of Jesus Christ?
   A. You are missing simple steps.
   B. You need unambiguous definition/illustration.
   C. You need sensitive questioning.
   D. You need a sample “prayer of faith”
   E. You need initial guidance for “beginning discipleship” or first steps in following Jesus.

APPENDIX F:
EVANGELISM RESOURCE NOTEBOOK

Assemble an evangelism/disciple-making resource notebook for your future ministry of preaching, teaching, or other leadership opportunities in the church.

Divide this “working notebook” into your own functional categories that you anticipate will be helpful to you in the ministry to which God has called you. Recommended: computer storage, as well as hard copy [do not turn in computer CD or other memory device].

For your hard copy, I recommend you prepare for a 3 ring binder with appropriate dividers, and some pocket inserts for loose-leaf materials. However, for space sake DO NOT TURN IN TO ME THE 3-RING BINDER, but put all materials in envelope(s) with your name and P.O. Box or home address with appropriate postage so I can return this work to you. Be sure the envelope(s) are of adequate size so the materials can be removed easily.

REQUIRED CONTENT:

➢ A minimum of at least 25 different possible resources (e.g., “handouts”). These resources may but need not be original, but cite authors of material not written by you, or indicate “author unknown”.

➢ You may include as many handouts from class in your notebook that you find useful. However, the notebook needs to contain at least 15 resources beyond what you receive in class.

➢ Attach a cover sheet that makes clear your functional categories, and under each category the individual resources (“handouts”) in your current notebook [of course you will add to these in the future]. Place an asterisk next to those that you have contributed, i.e. in addition to those distributed in class.
This assignment is an opportunity for you to consolidate your learning in this course and to prepare useful materials to guide a church toward healthy biblical evangelism and disciple-making. Do not complete this work as a mere academic assignment but rather prepare with the intention of carrying it out.

Begin by describing an actual church and then describe the church in terms of its present understanding and practice of evangelism (1-2pp. single spaced, double spacing between paragraphs). Assume that the senior pastor invites you to conduct a weekend retreat for the staff and lay leadership for the purpose of generating interest and support for church-wide evangelism as an ongoing part of the life of the church family.

Give a detailed outline/summary of the retreat schedule, and of your written notes, handouts, practice exercises, etc., for this retreat (10+ pp. single spaced, double spacing between paragraphs). Do not simply lecture to the participants, but make this a praxis retreat with (1) substance, including mini-lectures if you wish or other forms of good content, and (2) productive discussion or other forms of participation. The goal is toward putting into practice back home in the church what you are learning together during the retreat.

Your potential resources for putting together the retreat include course readings, lecture/discussions, evangelism exercises in class, praxis exercises outside of class, and your own personal background up to the present time.

Remember your audience, and be helpful! If possible, after EV 701 is completed actually carry out the retreat with your church!

Be sure to incorporate prayer s the key to knowing God’s heart and to realizing his purpose and power as he advances his Kingdom through you.

It is okay to work on the evangelism retreat with others in the church including the pastor and/or other church leaders, or with fellow students, as long as you (1) give credit by indicating the others’ names and a brief description of their overall contributions, and (2) do the final write-up yourself.

God bless you, and have fun!
