Course Description and Objective
To preach the gospel to every person is the command the Lord Jesus Christ has given to each Christian. And it is the defining mandate of the Church. This course is an introduction and overview of the mission of the Church. The Learning Objectives of this course are stated as follows:

Learning Objectives
1. Students will assimilate an overview of the biblical foundation of missions and will formulate a biblical understanding of missions.

2. Students will examine the historical progress of missions throughout the ages, grasp the characteristics of various paradigms in mission history, and become acquainted with key figures and epochs in the modern Protestant missionary movement.

3. Students will enhance their awareness of the interactions between missions and their cultural and social contexts and will foster an understanding of the cross-cultural nature of Christian missions. Students will become acquainted with the methods and approaches of contemporary mission studies.
4. Students will examine the key issues and current trends in the contemporary global missions, and get familiar with the developments of the churches in non-Western world.

5. Students will deepen their commitment to Christ’ great commission and will strengthen their faith in the universality and truthfulness of the gospel and the vitality of missionary movement. They will be challenged to develop or re-confirm their identities as a member of world Christian community.

Requirements

A. Mission Statement / Reflection (40%)

By the end of this course, each student is required to write a mission statement / reflection paper. The contents: (1), why mission is important; (2) the Biblical foundations of mission; (3) what major lessons we can learn from mission history; (4), what is the mission approach or strategy relevant in today’s context. Due Date:

Length: 6-8 pages, double spaced.

B. Book Report (20%)

Each student is required to write a report on Borthwick, Western Christians in Global Mission. The length of the report: five to six pages, double-spaced. The contents: the summary of the book contents, the impact the book has upon you, and other personal reflections and comments on the book. Due Date:

C. Group Project and Presentation (35%)

The entire class will be divided into study groups (3-4 students in each group, and feel free to choose your partners.) Each group will select a region (East Asia, South and Southeast Asia, West Asia and North Africa, South America, Sub-Saharan Africa), and study its culture, history, population, mission history, mission needs, mission opportunities and challenges. You need to study a region you are not familiar with. In the final weeks of this term, each group is required to present their findings to the class in 30 minutes (including Q & A time). By briefly surveying each region’s history and culture, your presentation should focus on current mission opportunities and challenges.

After your presentation, each group should submit a project folder containing the
D. Mission Related Activities (5%)
Each student is required to attend the Prayer for Nations three times throughout this semester and some required mission events (TBA). By the end of this semester each student is required to submit a log to list the activities you participate in and brief summaries of the contents of the activities. Due Date:

Students’ participation in class is strongly encouraged. The interactions between students and teacher or your questions and comments are highly desirable.
