Student's Rights of Privacy and Access to Records

(See the Student Handbook for more information on the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act.)

Gordon-Conwell accords to all students the rights outlined under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 as amended.

General information which the Seminary may give out at its discretion includes the student's name, spouse's name, address, telephone number, degree program, dates of attendance, citizenship and denominational affiliation. If the student wishes any of this information withheld, he/she may write to the registrar and the request will be honored within the academic year the letter is received.

Other information from the student's education record is considered confidential and available only for appropriate review by faculty advisors, office of the president, and personnel within the offices of the registrar, admissions and financial aid, and in the event of an emergency to protect the health or safety of the student or others. In such cases, only information considered pertinent will be released.

*By identifying yourself with a denomination, you are authorizing Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary to release the above-mentioned general information to denominational representatives and/or association. If you do not wish for your denominational affiliation to be made public, please select "undeclared."

Statistical Information on Racial/Ethnic Groups

The Seminary is required to submit reports to the federal government and to the Association of Theological Schools containing statistical information on racial/ethnic groups represented in our student body. Racial/ethnic information will be used for statistical purposes only. You will never be personally identified by your racial/ethnic group to any person or organization without your explicit, written permission. Please note the following definitions of terms:

Hispanic or Latino means a person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, Central or South American, or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race.

American Indian or Alaska Native means a person having origins in any of the original peoples of North America, and who maintains a tribal affiliation or community attachment.

Asian means a person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian subcontinent including, e.g., Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand, and Vietnam.

Black or African American means a person having origins in any of the Black racial groups of Africa.

Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander means a person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guam, Samoa, or other Pacific Islands.

White means a person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, the Middle East, or North Africa.
