COURSE OBJECTIVES

Description: The foundational course in the Division of Ministry and an introduction to theological seminary. A beginning working knowledge of personal worship and of corporate worship leading to a lifetime of continuing education. Spiritual exercise and small group practice for personal application and for leadership in the church and in the community.

A. The intention is that in this introductory course you will:

1. Articulate a practical theology of worship to guide both personal worship and corporate worship.
2. Develop an understanding and appreciation of personal and corporate worship from a variety of Christian traditions.
3. Exercise personal spiritual disciplines that become foundational practices for the remainder of your seminary experience, and beyond seminary for life and ministry.
4. Describe and formally evaluate a corporate worship service from a tradition different than your own, based upon your clearly articulated theology of worship.
5. Develop a rich treasure of resources for your future teaching/leadership in personal and corporate worship.

B. This course addresses the Seminary’s Mission Statement as follows:

Mission Statement #1: Examining God’s Word regarding the meaning and practice of worship.

Mission Statement #2: Constructively critiquing worship in the best tradition of Christian scholarship.

Mission Statements #3 & #5: Learning to become skilled in the practice of worship personally and to provide resources for the local church to be an effective worshiping presence in the larger community.

Mission Statements #4 & #6: Working toward growing maturity in worship and leading the church toward maturity in worship for redemptive influence in the world.
COURSE REQUIREMENTS

2. PERSONAL WORSHIP

Choice:

- Participate in a one day Spiritual Retreat, hosted by Gordon-Conwell’s Pierce Center. Held off-campus at Notre Dame Mission Center in Ipswich, meeting dates are during Reading Week, Nov. 11 & 12 (one day or the other), 9am to approximately 4:30pm. The retreat will be devoted to the disciplines of prayer, silence, biblical contemplation, worship, & group reflection. Retreatants will be given opportunity for one-on-one soul care conversations during the retreat with a trained leader. Cost, including lunch & all materials, is $20.00. Sign-up instructions will be given in class. ABSOLUTE DEADLINE TO REGISTER IS OCTOBER 24.

You will record your participation on the Reading/Project Report (end of the syllabus).

- Write a “Devotional Classics Personal Journal” which you will submit with all of your papers at the end of the term, following Foster and Smith’s book listed above under your Required Texts. [Note: All students will read Devotional Classics, but only those who choose this option will develop a Personal Journal based upon selected “Reflection Questions” from the book. Follow the instructions in the next paragraph.]

If you elect this option, for each of the weeks of Devotional Classics readings, choose one of the selected readings and type out your prayerful and thoughtful answers to all of the “Reflection Questions” for that one reading (e.g., all of the “Reflection Questions” for C.S. Lewis, “Giving All to Christ,” p. 11). TYPE THE “REFLECTION QUESTIONS” & PAGE ON WHICH THE QUESTIONS APPEAR FOLLOWED BY YOUR WRITTEN REFLECTIVE RESPONSES.

Submit your “Devotional Classics Personal Journal” at the end of the term.

- Complete both the Spiritual Retreat and the “Devotional Classics Personal Journal.” If you choose this option, you may receive up to 7 extra points (7% extra credit) toward your final grade.

3. SMALL GROUP PRACTICE

You will gather with a small group of classmates (as assigned) for sharing spiritual formation in community—eight weeks of approximately 90 minutes each. [Incidentally, it may be of interest to you that many small groups choose voluntarily to continue to meet after the class is completed.]

You will prepare carefully in advance of your small group meetings by carrying out assignments in (1) Foster’s Streams of Living Water and by (2) Smith’s complementary volume, A Spiritual Formation Workbook. The schedule of assignments for these books is given in the “Class Schedule” (see below, pp. 7-8).

You will follow Smith’s A Spiritual Formation Workbook to guide your small group meetings. Prior to your small group meeting, you will (1) read and prayerfully reflect upon all the exercises in this workbook and (2) carry out at least one exercise of your choice from that week’s reading WHEN CALLED UPON IN THE WORKBOOK TO DO SO. [You will not hand in written responses to the exercises]. My evaluation of your work for this part of the course will be based upon your responses in the Reading/Project Report, where you will record the extent to which you fulfilled this part of the course, along with a self-evaluation of the quality of your own involvement. [See pp. 9ff below]
4. CORPORATE WORSHIP – CHURCH SITE-VISIT PAPER

Visit a worship service in a church that is very different from your own background. For example, if you are an Orthodox Presbyterian you may want to visit a Pentecostal or Charismatic church, or vice versa; etc. Describe the worship service from beginning to end. Discuss and respectfully evaluate the worship by reference to your own theology of corporate worship. [Resources will be given in class for this assignment throughout the semester, and particularly in Dr. Currie’s lecture on “A Beginning Foundation for Corporate Worship” (Sept. 22).

Your final paper should be approximately 5 pages, single spaced, double spaced between paragraphs [one inch margins top and bottom, left and right, and 12-point type – Times New Roman or equivalent].

5. FINAL PAPER: PERSONAL SPIRITUAL REFLECTION

This paper is the culmination of the entire semester’s course. Write a self-reflection paper looking in the mirror, as it were, before and after your participation in this course. Include in the paper your before and after:

♦ understanding of the meaning and practice of personal worship (2+ pp.)
♦ understanding of the meaning and practice of corporate worship (2+ pp.)
♦ implications of your above understandings for your own relationship with God, self, and others (2+ pp.)
♦ your personal struggles and advancements in these regards (2+ pp.)
♦ how you plan to proceed from here in your spiritual growth and development (2+ pp.)

Write out the above headings and address each of them separately. If you wish you may write an optional final section to consolidate your reflections. Your grade on the self-reflection paper will be determined by your thoughtful observations and constructive analyses relating to your own spiritual development, regardless of where you determine you may be at the present time. The paper should be a minimum of 10 pages [single-spaced with double spacing between paragraphs].

NOTE CAREFULLY: If you want your papers returned at the end of the term in your P.O. Box, it is necessary for you to submit your papers in an envelope with YOUR NAME on the outside [I can then return them to you in the same envelope]. DO NOT SEAL or CLASP THE ENVELOPE. If you do not have a campus post office, you must provide a self-addressed envelope of adequate size and postage if you want your materials to be returned.

Papers submitted after the due date will be graded down on the basis of 1 full grade point (i.e., A to B) for each day late, except by prior approval due to personal crisis or unusual life events.
