► Central Mass Homeschool Co-Op | www.cmhscoop.org | centralmasschs@gmail.com

Homeschooling your child can be one of the most rewarding experiences of parenthood, but it can also be a challenge, especially if you are going it alone. So, don't go it alone. Central Mass Homeschool Co-op is here to help and encourage each other on the incredible journey that is homeschooling. Deciding to homeschool means you have decided that your children will best be served by learning outside of the public or private school environment. This decision allows you, the parent, to oversee your child's educational development as well as their spiritual development. Whether your decision is made on a year-by-year basis, or you are already committed through high school, homeschooling is a situation where there is safety in numbers. If you'd like to be a part of a group of like-minded parents, who are all working towards instilling both academic as well as spiritual virtues in their children, then you have found the right place.
