History of the Church of God of Prophecy
(MC601)

Salem, Oregon
January 24-27, 2013

Professor
Héctor Ortiz, D. Min.
Course Description

This course will focus on the roots and identity of the Church of God of Prophecy and its government and polity. In order to accomplish the objectives of the course, an in-depth examination of the history of the COGOP from its inception will be undertaken. In writing about history, Geoffrey Elton states, “The purpose of history is to understand the past, and if the past is to be understood it must be given full respect in its own right” (R.J. Evans, 1999:197). The biblical text tells us one of the primary reasons of history is “These things happened to them as examples and were written down as warnings for us, on whom the fulfillment of the ages has come” (1 Cor 10:11 NIV). This course will honor the past, review the present, and project into the future.

Course Objectives

The objectives of this course include the following:
1. Review the era, leadership style, and history of the COGOP founder, A. J. Tomlinson.
2. Review the historical development of the identity of the COGOP.
3. Review the historical successes, accidents, and ill advice theology.
4. Trace the periods of maintenance, transition, and the new paradigm.

Course Competencies

1. The student will have a good grasp on the roots of the Church of God of Prophecy.
2. The course will enable the student to understand and clarify the historical accidents that took place.
3. The review of historical events within the phase of maintenance and the dynamics of transition will give the student a posture to engage the future in the COGOP.
Required Texts

Required texts for this course are listed below with indication as to when certain books will be available. The design of this course is that some required books will be immediately available while others will come on line as the White Wing Publishing House makes them available. The reason for this is that some of our historical books have been out of print for many years and the Center for Biblical Leadership is working in conjunction with the Publishing House to reformat these books. All the books are in English and are to be read before the course in July.

All books can be ordered from White Wing Christian Bookstore.

Recommended Texts

Methodology (Course Requirements)

1. Attendance and participation are mandatory.

2. Book Reviews – Each student is to provide a two-page review for each of the following books: Diary of A. J. Tomlinson 1901 – 1924 and The Last Great Conflict by A. J. Tomlinson. These two book reviews are to be turned in on the first day of class.

3. Final paper: The final paper is a historical analysis paper, not a sermon nor a testimony. It should be eight (8) pages excluding the front page, outline page, end notes and bibliography. The final paper should be double-spaced and can be written in English or Spanish. It should contain no less than 15 references. The theme for the final paper will have to be approved by the professor.

4. Transmission of Final Paper: The final paper should be sent by e-mail to Dr. Hector Ortiz, hortiz@cogop.org and to kosborn@cogop.org. The due date for the final paper is March 20, 2013.

DUE DATE FOR FINAL PAPER – March 20, 2013

Important Information

Academic Honesty
Students are on their honor to complete assignments with integrity. This means that all written assignments are to reflect the student’s own work and to be submitted for credit only in this course. Relative to the entire course of study, it must be stressed that cheating and plagiarism (using the intellectual property [works] of others without proper citation credit, giving the impression that it is the student’s own work) are not acceptable.

Student Responsibility
The syllabus is being sent well in advance of the class. Students have plenty of time to obtain their books and complete the reading assignments and the book reviews that are due upon arrival the first day of class. Those who do not complete these assignments and turn them in by the due date will receive a ½ grade reduction in their final grade. If both the reading assignments and the book reviews are late, it will result in a full letter-grade reduction.
Intensive/Residence – January 24-27, 2013

1. Participation in class discussions relative to the professor’s lectures is expected.
2. During the residency period, some historical films will be shown.
3. In order to facilitate discussion, we will use focus groups. Each focus group will analyze certain aspects of leadership connected to the film and readings. Also, each focus group will report their views in order to deal with the critical aspect of class material.

Grading

Required Reading 15%
Critical Book Review 30%
Focus Group Presentation & Attendance 15%
Final Paper 40%

Remember: Final Paper due date is March 20, 2013.
