Course Overview
Students will explore the content, interpretive, and theological issues raised and/or addressed in the book of Exodus. This course will also provide the student with sufficient knowledge of Hebrew and Greek in order to do Hebrew and Greek word studies. No previous knowledge of Hebrew or Greek is expected or required for this course.

Course Objective
“To encourage students to become knowledgeable of God's inerrant Word, competent in its interpretation, proclamation and application in the contemporary world.” Article 1 of the Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary Mission Statement

Course Goals
- The student will learn the Hebrew and Greek alphabets and how to do basic word studies in Hebrew and Greek.

- The student will be introduced to the bibliographic tools for biblical exegesis and research.

- The student will learn to exegete a passage in the book of Exodus and apply it to his or her own life and issues in the contemporary church and society.

- The student will demonstrate an understanding of the introductory issues relating to the book Exodus.

Course Relationship to the Curriculum
- OT 552 Exodus in-Depth fulfills the OT requirement for the Master of Arts in Religion degree.

- OT 552 Exodus in-Depth may be used as an OT elective or as an OT core requirement for the M.Div. degree depending on the date of a students’ admission to GCTS.
OT 552 Exodus in-Depth may be used as an elective course for the Diploma degree program.
