THEOLOGY SURVEY II

(TH 502)

Nassau, Bahamas
February 6-11, 2012

Professor
Héctor Ortiz, D. Min.
Course Objectives

To enhance the students defining and clarifying his or her credo in light of the Holy Text in relation to its teachings on the subjects of Sin (Hamartiology), Salvation (Soteriology), the Holy Spirit (Pneumatology), the Church (Ecclesiology), and Last Things (Eschatology).

Course Competencies

This course is designed with the following objectives:

A. To give the student an understanding of how to articulate his or her doctrinal position of the hope of salvation and the need for holy living.

B. To help the student to explain the vital relationship of the Holy Spirit in the life of the believer.

C. To help the student better explain the mission and role of God’s Ecclesia in reaching lost humanity in view of the last things that shall be fulfilled.

A Core Value

The believer, being turned to God in penitent faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, is accountable to God for living a life separated from sin and characterized by the fruit of the Spirit. It is his or her responsibility to contribute by word and deed to the universal spread of the Gospel. “But in your hearts set apart Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have” (1 Peter 3:15).
Required Texts

1. The Holy Bible
7. A Theological Workbook will be furnished at the beginning of the class. The price is $10.00.

Course Requirements

A. Attendance and participation are mandatory.

B. Pre-Class Reading Assignments

1. Read the following books or chapters in the Bible: 1 Corinthians 15, 1 & 2 Thessalonians, 2 Peter, Jude, Revelations 19-22.
4. Read all the Justo González book.
5. Read all of Frank D. Macchia’s book.
6. Read all of John Wesley’s book.
C. The reading log should be turned in the first day of class.

E. There will be focus group assignments prepared during residency.

F. Final paper will be a theological concept paper of 8 pages double-spaced on one of the following subjects: Hamartiology, Soteriology, Pneumatology, Ecclesiology, or Eschatology. The final paper is not a sermon or a testimonial. It is a paper of research and should contain 12 references. The paper should be based on class lectures, required reading, bibliographical resources, and personal investigation. The paper should have a title page that gives general information concerning the Gordon-Conwell Consortium, date, your name, professor’s name, and course title. The paper should include an outline of the subject to be discussed and a bibliography. The body of the text should be 8 pages not counting the title page, outline, and bibliography. Final paper is due March 20, 2012.

Transmission of Final Paper: Send to Dr. Hector Ortiz at hortiz@cogop.org and to my secretary at kosborn@cogop.org.

DUE DATE FOR FINAL PAPER IS MARCH 20, 2012

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Students are on their honor to complete assignments with integrity. This means that all written assignments are to reflect the student’s own work and to be submitted for credit only in this course. Where other secondary sources are used, appropriate dependence with the proper use of footnotes must be adhered to. Students cannot copy the work of each other. When this is discovered each individual will receive a failing grade for the course.

Relative to the entire course of study, it must be assumed that cheating and plagiarism are sins contrary to God’s laws and the mission of Gordon-Conwell. Plagiarism is using the intellectual property of others without proper citation, giving the impression that it is the student’s own work. Be aware that if assignments are discovered to contain plagiarized materials, the assignment will be failed.
Student Responsibility

The syllabus is being sent well in advance of the class. Students have plenty of time to obtain their books and complete the reading assignments and two papers that are due upon arrival the first day of class. Those who do not complete these assignments and do not turn them in by the due date will receive a $\frac{1}{2}$ grade reduction in their final grade. If both the reading assignments and the papers are late, it will result in a full letter-grade reduction.
