What is Gordon-Conwell?
Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary is a multi-denominational evangelical Protestant graduate school serving almost 2,000 students on campuses in Hamilton and Boston, Massachusetts; Charlotte, North Carolina; and Jacksonville, Florida. Students represent 94 denominations and 53 foreign countries. The seminary ranks fifth largest in size among the 251 seminaries accredited by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada. Gordon-Conwell offers many degrees at the master’s and doctoral levels and has gained an international reputation for leading faculty in the areas of biblical studies, ministry and theology.

Gordon-Conwell was founded in 1969 in South Hamilton, MA, as a result of the efforts of Dr. Billy Graham, Dr. Harold John Ockenga and philanthropist J. Howard Pew. These men desired to establish an evangelical seminary dedicated to equipping students for ministry. Gordon-Conwell has been that seminary, combining educational innovation with academic rigor and faithfulness to the Gospel.

Rooted in the gospel and God’s Word, Gordon-Conwell seeks to develop Christian leaders who are thoughtful, globally aware, spiritually mature and ready for a broad array of ministries. Gordon-Conwell is currently collaborating with the Hispanic Evangelical Church around the world with the task of preparing workers for the Lord’s vineyard in order to fulfill the Great Commission (Matt 28:18-20).
