All of the following databases are available online from the Library website: http://www.gordonconwell.edu/library/Counseling-and-Psychology-Databases.cfm (If you are off campus, you will be prompted for your GCTS Sakai/CMAS/webmail ID and password – typically your first initial followed by your last name [e.g. jsmith] and the password you set up at Registration).

- Academic Search Complete is a multi-disciplinary collection of full-text periodical literature.
- ATLA Religion Database with ATLASerials covers articles in journals, essays in books and book reviews on topics in religion (including pastoral ministry, pastoral counseling, and the intersection of religion and psychology and medicine).
- Counseling and Therapy in Video I-IV provides faculty and students with a first-hand look at the realities of working with clients and the challenges associated with putting theoretical concepts into practice. These collection provide a thorough grounding in dozens of therapeutic methods and diagnoses, insight into the human condition, and training in skills such as reflection and empathy while working with specific populations such as veterans and teens. Over 1,300 hours of content are available across the four volumes.
- Family & Society Studies Worldwide, produced by NISC, is a core resource providing the most comprehensive coverage of research, policy, and practice literature in the fields of Family Science, Human Ecology, Human Development, and Social Welfare.
- Health Reference Center Academic Multi-source database provides access to the full text of nursing and allied health journals, plus the wide variety of personal health information sources in InfoTrac's award-winning Health Reference Center. All in a single, easy-to-use database, the material contained in this database is intended for informational purposes only.
- ProQuest Dissertations and Theses — Full Text (Humanities & Social Sciences Collection) is the world’s most comprehensive collection of dissertations and theses. The official digital dissertations archive for the Library of Congress and the database of record for graduate research.
- Psychology and Behavioral Sciences Collection This database provides 575 full text publications, including nearly 550 peer-reviewed titles. Psychology & Behavioral Sciences Collection covers topics such as emotional and behavioral characteristics, psychiatry & psychology, mental processes, anthropology, and observational and experimental methods. Nearly every full text title included in this database is indexed in PsycINFO.
- PsycARTICLES is a definitive source of searchable full-text, peer-reviewed scholarly and scientific articles in psychology. The database contains more than 40,000 articles from 53 journals - 45 published by the American Psychological Association (APA) and 8 from allied organizations. It includes all journal articles, letters to the editor and errata from each journal. Coverage spans 1985 to present.
- PsycBOOKS from the American Psychological Association (APA), includes over 38,000 chapters in PDF from over 2,500 books, published by the APA and other distinguished publishers.
- PsycINFO, the American Psychological Association’s renowned resource for abstracts of scholarly journal articles, books chapters, books, and dissertations, is the largest resource devoted to peer-reviewed literature in behavioral science and mental health.
- Religion and Philosophy Collection This database provides extensive coverage of such topics as world religions, major denominations, biblical studies, religious history, epistemology, political philosophy, philosophy of language, moral philosophy and the history of philosophy. Religion & Philosophy Collection offers more than 300 full text journals, including more than 250 peer-reviewed titles, making it an essential tool for researchers and students of theology and philosophical studies. While this database concentrates on religion and philosophy, areas where counseling and psychology intersect with religion and philosophy are covered as well.
