Questions

Briefly type your responses to the following questions and attach them to the first page of the application.

1. Which languages do you read, write or speak? How would you assess your proficiency?

2. Summarize your cross-cultural and/or international travel experience in bullet form.

3. Why did you select this global education course, and what do you hope to learn from it?

4. What skills do you have which would contribute to living closely with a group of people for several weeks?

5. How would your presence in the course enhance the quality of Christian community life within the group?

6. Describe your present physical condition. Do you have hiking experience?

7. Have you ever been on academic probation? If yes, which semester(s)?

8. Have you ever been on disciplinary probation? If yes, briefly describe semester and circumstance(s).

I certify that the answers I have given are accurate and that I will comply with all terms of Gordon-Conwell's Community Life Statement while I am participating in this cross-cultural study course. I also understand that I will be required to participate in two common orientation sessions for all cross-cultural courses, as well as a series of country-specific sessions as planned by the faculty leader.
