Luther: Life & Legacy

In observance of the 500th anniversary of Luther's posting of the 95 Theses, the Dept. of Lutheran Studies is offering this non credit course. It is open to anyone, lay and clergy, who desires to participate in a guided study of Luther's life and theology. There will be ample time for discussion and reflection among class participants.

SCHEDULE

What will we learn or re-learn? An overview of Luther's life in light of recent research, study of select writings of Luther on topics like:

- How are we saved?
- How can I be sure of salvation?
- What is the importance of sacraments?
- So who is Jesus?
- Should we be involved in politics?

Our study of Luther's life and writings will serve as a basis for our discussions relative to the continuing import of Luther and the Reformation for the church and the world in the 21st century.

In addition to class, we will gather for worship on Saturday morning, with preaching focusing on important writings of Luther, and on Saturday noon we will share a meal together.

COST & PAYMENT

$150.00 for all three classes. Payment may be made with registration or upon attending the classes. Payment may be made all at once or in three installments.

The "Luther: Life and Legacy" course will be offered over three Friday evening (7:00-9:00 pm)/Saturday morning and afternoon (9:00am—2:00pm) sessions. Each weekend session will build upon the previous weekend session. In other words, it is one course that meets three times.
