

When Your Church Family Joins the Partnership Program

Together, you will equip the next generation of pastors, church leaders, evangelists, missionaries and other servants of the Kingdom.

Together, you will raise up leaders who are grounded in biblical principles with the ability to engage our culture for Christ.

Together, you will help students go directly into ministry after graduation, less burdened by debt and equipped with fundraising and stewardship skills.

“Gordon-Conwell’s Partnership Program is an invaluable resource for seminarians and for the broader Church. I would never have been able to afford seminary, but because of the Partnership Program, I completed a Masters of Divinity debt-free. What’s more, the training for fundraising and the relationship building it requires are needed skills for years to come.”

GORDON CONWELL

An Invitation from the President

The single most important variable as to whether a person called to ministry or mission work will complete their education and go into ministry is the support that they receive. This support is both financial and spiritual. Both are necessary, and they are a seamless foundation for ministry. When students are asked why they are dropping back on their education or dropping out of their MA or MDiv program, the single most important reason is finances. They have to work more and study less.

Gordon-Conwell's Partnership Program is a unique program that answers this problem with clarity and compassion. I have met a number of these students and they are among the greatest celebrants: "I have a position and no debt!" Many others have to work for three or four years to pay off debt before they can serve as missionaries or as pastors. And, as you would guess, many never make it to the mission field.

Having served as a missionary—both to college students, and to Asian leaders—I know the value of partnership. Being held up by friends and partner churches, my wife and I were able to serve a total of 13 years. After six years of graduate school, we had only $2,000 of debt.

Please read this material prayerfully and see how you might partner with one or more of our students.

Blessings,

Scott W. Sunquist
President

How does it Work?

The Partnership Program surrounds our students with a strong network of prayer support, as well as a full-tuition scholarship. By giving as a church family, you become an integral part of their academic and spiritual preparation, as well as all of the hearts and lives that will be transformed through their future ministry!
