GORDON-CONWELL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary has a rich heritage. Its roots are located in two institutions which have long provided evangelical leadership for the Christian church in a variety of ministries. One institution was founded in 1884 by Russell Conwell, a Baptist minister in Philadelphia. The school later developed into the well-known Temple University. Conwell School of Theology functioned as a unit of Temple University between the years 1960–1969. Gordon Divinity School, on the other hand, grew out of the Boston Missionary Training School, which was established in 1889 by a group of ministers who had a deep concern for missions abroad and in New England urban centers. Upon the death of the Rev. A.J. Gordon, prominent Baptist minister and founding leader, the institution was given his name.

In 1969, Conwell School of Theology and Gordon Divinity School united through the initiative of Rev. Billy Graham, Dr. Harold John Ockenga and J. Howard Pew. Dr. Ockenga became the first president of this new institution and continued to give leadership to the seminary until his retirement in 1979. Dr. Robert E. Cooley was appointed the second president of the seminary and served from 1981–1997. Gordon-Conwell's third president, Dr. Walter C. Kaiser, Jr., provided nine years of dedicated service from 1997–2006. Dr. Kaiser was followed briefly by Dr. James Emery White. Dr. Haddon W. Robinson was appointed interim president in May 2007 and was succeeded by Dr. Dennis P. Hollinger in August 2008. Dr. Hollinger retired on June 30, 2019 and was succeeded by Dr. Scott W. Sunquist on July 1, 2019.

The purpose of the seminary is to equip persons for leadership in a variety of ministries in Christ's name. The times in which we live demand Christian workers who have an unshakable conviction regarding the authority and trustworthiness of Scripture, a sure grasp of the responsibilities of ministry and a firm sense of calling to be God's servants in the world. Toward these ends, the seminary has structured its degree programs: the Master of Arts (with concentrations in areas of theology and Bible), Master of Arts (Religion), Master of Arts in Counseling, Master of Arts in World Missions and Evangelism, Master of Arts in Intercultural Studies, Master of Arts in Spiritual Formation, Master of Arts in Urban Ministry Leadership, Master of Divinity, Master of Theology and the Doctor of Ministry. The seminary offers this variety of training programs because contemporary ministry requires specialized studies and skills.

The Lord has prospered this institution with trustees who are firm in their witness and support, faculty members widely recognized for their academic acumen and pastoral emphasis, a skilled group of staff members known among us for their dedication and competence and a large student body whose calling and enthusiasm strongly benefit the school. Our four campuses: Hamilton, Boston, Charlotte and Jacksonville have proudly graduated more than 10,000 alumni serving Christ throughout the world.

With the Apostle John we say, "This is the message we have heard from him and declare to you: God is light; in him there is no darkness at all. If we claim to have fellowship with him yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not live by the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all sin." (I John 1:5–7)

ACADEMIC GOWNS AND HOODS

In American higher education, master's gowns are characterized by a long flap, which hangs down from the end of each sleeve. Doctoral gowns have three velvet stripes on the upper sleeves and velvet on the front panel. Sometimes the gowns are of distinctive colors to represent the school. In Gordon-Conwell's tradition, the gowns are black.

The color of the hood trim reflects the general field of the degree. White trim designates the arts in general, blue represents education and red reflects theology and ministry. The width of the velvet trim designates whether the degree is a master's or a doctorate, with a wider band being used for the doctorate.

The colors on the back inside part of the hood are always the official colors of the school. In Gordon-Conwell's case, the colors are royal blue and white. Our tradition also calls for two white chevrons instead of one large one.

BUT I PRESS ON TO TAKE HOLD OF THAT FOR WHICH CHRIST JESUS
TOOK HOLD OF ME. I DO NOT CONSIDER MYSELF YET TO HAVE TAKEN HOLD OF IT. BUT ONE THING I DO: FORGETTING WHAT IS BEHIND AND STRAINING TOWARD WHAT IS AHEAD, I PRESS ON TOWARD THE GOAL TO WIN THE PRIZE FOR WHICH GOD HAS CALLED ME HEAVENWARD IN CHRIST JESUS. ALL OF US WHO ARE MATURE SHOULD TAKE SUCH A VIEW OF THINGS.

PHILIPPIANS 3:12-15
