CAMPUS SAFETY & SECURITY

At Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary – Charlotte located at 14542 Choate Circle, Charlotte, North Carolina 28273, the safety and welfare of all Seminary community members and guests are the highest priority for the Campus Safety Team, which consists of the Operations Director, Security Guard, and Sonitrol Security. With the support of many other departments, we constantly strive to maintain a safe and secure environment for the Seminary to accomplish its educational mission. The Charlotte Campus affirms that it does not maintain or recognize any non-campus locations.

Because no campus is immune from crime, Gordon-Conwell has developed a series of policies and procedures to enhance the safety and security of the Seminary community. However, we must also enlist support of the Gordon-Conwell community if our efforts are to succeed.

The cooperation and active involvement of all students, faculty and staff members is an absolute necessity if any campus safety and security program is to succeed. All members of the Seminary community must assume responsibility for their own personal safety and the security of their personal belongings by taking simple, common-sense precautions. For example, people walking on campus at night are encouraged to walk with at least one other person. When you need to return to your car at night you may want to walk with a friend or ask the Security Guard on duty to walk with you. Every building exit, exit approach and exit discharge area must be kept free of all items to ensure full and instant use in an emergency. All bicycles on campus should be secured with a quality lock. Vehicles on campus should be locked at all times.

Everyone is strongly encouraged to report any suspicious persons or activities to the Campus Safety Team. Contact the Campus Safety Team at extension 5805 from any campus extension telephone or 704-527-9909 from a cell phone or any outside telephone immediately upon suspicion of any criminal activity, vandalism, theft or public disturbance. To report a crime in progress, a fire, or a medical emergency, dial 911. Fast action can make a difference. Also, your recommendations regarding any situation, which may cause unsafe or harmful conditions, will be gratefully accepted by any member of the Campus Safety Team.

When the Campus Safety Team receives a report of a serious crime or other emergency involving a student, the Seminary's 24-hour Student Life Services support network is activated. The Operations Director confirms the emergency and disseminates the information to the Gordon-Conwell – Charlotte Community via e-mail. Student Success will send an additional communication via "Navigate" a text messaging service to all students.

Safety and security related information is given to all new students at orientation. Crime prevention tips section is published as part of the Student Handbook which is posted on the web. Safety and security information is published in the Campus Guide to Auto and Public Safety Regulations which is distributed to all faculty, staff and students via the school web site.

JEANNE CLERY DISCLOSURE OF CAMPUS SECURITY POLICY and CAMPUS CRIME STATISTICS ACT, ALSO KNOWN AS THE CLERY ACT

The Student Right to Know and Campus Security Act (Public Law 101-542) was signed into law by President Bush in 1990 and went into effect on Sept. 1, 1991. Title II of this act is known as the Crime Awareness and Campus Security Act of 1990. This act amends the Higher Education Act of 1965 (HEA) by adding campus crime statistics and reporting provisions for postsecondary institutions. It requires the disclosure of crime statistics for the most recent three years, as well as disclosure of the institution's current security policies. Institutions are also required to issue timely warnings when necessary. All public and private Title IV eligible institutions must comply with the requirements of this act, which is enforced by the U. S. Department of Education (ED).

This law was amended when Congress enacted the Campus Sexual Assault Victim's Bill of Rights as part of the Higher Education Amendments of 1992 {Public Law 102-325, Section 486(C)}, giving victims of sexual assault on campus certain basic rights. In addition, institutions are required to develop and distribute a policy statement concerning their campus sexual assault programs targeting the prevention of sex offenses. This statement must also address the procedures to be followed if a sex offense occurs.

The most recent version of this law as amended through 2008 was passed as part of the Higher Education Amendments Act of 1998 {Section 486(e) of Public Law 105-244}. The official title under this act is the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act {20 U.S.C. 1092(f)}. On Nov. 1, 1999, ED issued the final regulations which went into effect on July 1, 2000. The amendments require ED to collect, analyze, and report to Congress on the incidences of crime on college campuses. The amendments also expand the requirement of the Student Right to Know and Campus Security Act of 1990 that all institutions of higher education participating in the federal student aid programs must disclose to students, faculty, staff, and, upon request, prospective students, and information regarding the incidence of crimes on campus as part of their campus security report. The 1998 amendments made several changes to the disclosure requirements. Among these changes were the addition of two crimes (Arson and Negligent Manslaughter) and three locations (residence halls, non-campus buildings or property not geographically contiguous to the campus, and public property immediately adjacent to a facility that is owned or operated by the institution for education purposes) that schools must include in the reported statistics. Institutions that have a campus police or security department are required to maintain a daily crime log that is available to the public.

The Clery Act was further amended in October 2000 by the Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act (Section 1601 of Public Law 106-386). The changes went into effect on Oct. 28, 2002. Beginning in 2003, institutions are required to notify the campus community where law enforcement agency information provided by a state concerning registered sex offenders who are on campus may be obtained.

Subsequent amendments in 2008 added provisions dealing with campus emergency response, missing students expanded hate crime reporting and campus emergency notification procedures.

ANNUAL PREPARATION AND DISCLOSURE OF CRIME STATISTICS

Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, Department of Public Safety, and Campus Safety prepares the Annual Disclosure of Crime Statistics report to comply with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act. The Annual Disclosure of Crime Statistics report is prepared in cooperation with the local law enforcement agencies surrounding our campus and other departments under the direction of the Dean of Students, Director of Student Life Services. The full text of the Annual Disclosure of Crime Statistics report can be located on our web site at:

<https://www.gordonconwell.edu/community/campus-safety/overview/#charlotte>

You will also be able to connect to our site via the Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary home page <https://www.gordonconwell.edu/networked/> Campus crime, arrest and referral statistics include those reported to Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, and Campus Safety.

The Annual Disclosure of Crime Statistics report is distributed by October 1 of each year and includes the disclosure of crime statistics for the most recent three calendar years. The crime statistics must also be submitted to the US Department of Education (USDOE) every year in a manner prescribed by the USDOE. The Annual Disclosure of Crime Statistics report is posted on the Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary website.

Access to a paper copy of the report is available upon request from the Dean's Office in the administration wing.

COMPLIANCE WITH CLERY ACT

To be in compliance with Clery Act regulations, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary has several obligations. These fall into three main categories: 1) policy disclosure; 2) records collection and retention; and 3) information dissemination.

Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary must provide the Seminary campus community and the public with accurate statements of its current policies and practices regarding:

- Procedures for students and others to report criminal actions or other emergencies occurring on the Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary campus;
- Security of and access to campus facilities; and
- Campus law enforcement.

Records collection and retention

Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary is required to keep some campus records and to request records from law enforcement agencies.

- Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, Campus Safety must keep records of crimes reported to campus security authorities.
- Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, Campus Safety must also make a reasonable good-faith effort to obtain certain crime statistics from appropriate law enforcement agencies to include in an annual security report and the Web-based report to the United States Department of Education (ED).
- Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, Campus Safety is required to keep a daily crime log that must be open to public inspection *.

 A Campus Crime Log of at least the previous one hundred and twenty (120) days is maintained and posted for public review on the information board in the student break room.*

Paper copies of previous Campus Crime Logs are available from the Director, Department of Public Safety, Campus Safety upon request.

ALL Campus crime reports or incidents are recorded on the Campus Crime Log for review within 2 business days of the report or incident.

Information dissemination

To provide Seminary community members with information necessary to make informed decisions about their safety, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary must disseminate information in several ways. Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary must:

- Provide a “timely warning” of any Clery Act crime that might represent an ongoing threat to the safety of students or employees;
- Provide access to Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary crime log during normal business hours;
- Publish an annual security report and distribute it to all current students and employees, and inform prospective students and employees about the content and availability of the report;
- Inform the Seminary community where to obtain information about registered sex offenders; and
- Submit Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary’s crime statistics to the United States Department of Education (ED) through the Web-based data collection system.

CAMPUS SAFETY

The Campus Safety Team consists of two full-time staff members and a Security Guard. The Campus Safety Team members are not police officers and do not have the power of arrest. However, they do serve as point of contact in the event of an emergency and are devoted to the security and safety of students, staff and faculty. The campus building is also monitored 24/7 by several cameras located in key locations. The Campus Safety Team also has access to panic alarms which in the event of an emergency will immediately contact local law enforcement.

ALCOHOL & ILLEGAL DRUGS

Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary seeks to provide a safe setting and to protect the public health for all members of the Seminary community by securing a drug-free environment in compliance with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989 (Federal law). The law declares that students and employees have the right to study and work in a setting free from the effects of drug or alcohol abuse. In keeping with the principles outlined in the Seminary Community Life Statement (cf. Student Handbook). Policies are adopted in compliance with the law.

Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary is in compliance with the Drug-Free School and Communities Act Amendment of 1989 relating to the illegal use of alcohol and drugs.

Gordon-Conwell Department of Public Safety, and the Campus Safety Team work to see that laws regulating underage drinking and the use of controlled substances and weapons are enforced. From the Student Handbook, Seminary policy prohibits the following:

- The use, possession, manufacture, distribution or sale of illegal drugs, controlled substances, or drug paraphernalia on seminary premises, in Seminary-supplied vehicles, or at any official function or Seminary activity.
- The use, possession, manufacture, distribution or sale of alcoholic beverages on Seminary premises, in Seminary-supplied vehicles, or at any official function or Seminary activity.
- Being under the influence of an unauthorized controlled substance, illegal drug or alcohol on Seminary premises, in Seminary supplied vehicles, or at any official function or Seminary activity.
- The use of alcoholic beverages or drugs that adversely affects a student’s academic performance, preparation for ministry, or practice of ministry, or that adversely affects an employee’s work performance, or that is a threat to individual safety on the part of the students or employees, or that adversely affects the Seminary’s reputation in the public arena on the part of students or employees.

Full policy statements can be found in the Student Handbook, the Staff Handbook and the Faculty Handbook.

SEXUAL ASSAULT—Higher Education Amendments of 1992

Sexual assault is one of the most under-reported crimes in the country due to the embarrassment, guilt and stigma often associated with it. It is a violent crime that results in devastating, long-term consequences for its victims and their families.

The Congress of the United States passed the Higher Education Amendments of 1992 in response to the growing number of sexual assaults being committed. The intent of the bill is to combat this crime by focusing on heightened awareness and education on school campuses.

Gordon-Conwell’s Community Life Statement maintains that “we renounce behaviors such as distortion of God’s Word, deception, falsehood, drunkenness, stealing and sexual immorality such as premarital intercourse, adultery and homosexual behavior.”

DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, STALKING PREVENTION, AND ACTIVE BYSTANDING AS OUTLINED BY NORTH CAROLINA GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Rape and sexual assault are very serious crimes. Any person found guilty of committing a rape or sexual assault is subject to arrest and prosecution under applicable criminal laws. Conviction can result in sanctions up to and including imprisonment as well as dismissal from the Seminary. Any member of the Seminary community found in violation through the Seminary disciplinary process of attempting to commit or committing a sexual assault will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including possible dismissal from Gordon-Conwell.

PROCEDURES FOR ACTIVE BYSTANDING

Active bystanding is the responsibility of all members of the campus community. Individuals are expected to take safe and reasonable action when witnessing behavior that may pose a risk to the safety or well-being of others. Such actions may include contacting Campus Security, seeking assistance from university staff, or safely intervening to de-escalate a situation. By practicing active bystanding, the campus community contributes to a secure and supportive environment for all students, faculty, staff, and visitors.

The 4 D's of Active Bystanding

All members of the campus community are encouraged to practice active bystanding through the following four approaches:

Direct – Address the concerning behavior immediately if it is safe to do so, by calmly speaking up or asking the individual to stop.

Distract – Interrupt or redirect attention in order to safely de-escalate the situation without direct confrontation.

Delegate – Seek assistance from Campus Security, staff, or other appropriate authorities who are trained to handle the situation.

Delay – If immediate action is not possible, check in with the affected individual afterward to provide support and encourage them to access available resources.

By applying the 4 D's, the campus community fosters a culture of safety, accountability, and care.

PROCEDURES TO FOLLOW IF A SEXUAL ASSAULT OCCURS

Sexual assaults are very serious crimes that may be adjudicated through the North Carolina trial court system. Sexual assaults that occur on campus and are reported to the Campus Safety Team will be turned over to the Charlotte Mecklenburg Police Department for investigation. The Charlotte Mecklenburg Police Department has jurisdiction in such cases and will lead the investigation. This procedure will be followed for all campus felony investigations. The Department of Public Safety, Campus Safety, Student Life Services, Human Resources Department, Academic Dean's office, and the Charlotte Mecklenburg Police Department are available to receive and process sexual assault complaints. A complaint may also be initiated by contacting other seminary administrative personnel. Student Life Services, Human Resources and Academic Dean's office have all necessary materials for filing a sexual assault complaint if the Seminary's disciplinary process is utilized. (Also see the Student Handbook regarding sexual harassment).

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE SEXUALLY ASSAULTED

- Contact a friend or someone for support.
- Seek medical attention at once. Some injuries may not be readily apparent.
- Do not bathe, douche, change your clothes, or rinse your mouth. You don't want to destroy any physical evidence. Take a clean change of clothing with you to the hospital.
- Do not touch any physical evidence of a struggle or disturb the scene of the assault.
- You have the option of reporting the crime to the police. While rape is a crime, the decision to report a sexual assault to the police is a personal one. Should you decide to contact the police, officers trained in rape investigation will interview you. A rape counselor, family member, or friend may also be with you during the interview. You always have the option of reporting the crime anonymously and also the option of whether or not to press charges.
- Rape is a crime of violence and is illegal. Since rape is a fact-specific crime, write down what happened, in your own words, to help you better remember if you decide to press charges.
- Get help and support. The campus staff and others can be of assistance.

PROCEDURES FOR SEMINARY DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

Seminary disciplinary proceedings in cases of sexual harassment will be processed by the Student Life Services Department for students, the Academic Dean's office for faculty and the Human Resources office for staff. Established sexual harassment and sexual assault procedures will be followed. This procedure is published in the employee and student handbooks and is contained in the Cleary Act Compliance Policy handbook. All complaints and proceedings will be kept confidential to the fullest possible extent.

In cases of alleged sexual assault that are to be handled by seminary disciplinary action, the accuser and the accused are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present during the disciplinary proceeding and the accuser and the accused shall be informed of the outcome of any disciplinary proceeding brought alleging sexual assault.

Victims of sexual assaults must be informed of their options to notify the proper law enforcement authorities and to be assisted in doing so. Victims have the option of reporting the assault to the police. Even though rape and sexual assaults are crimes, the decision to report them to the police is a personal one. Should you decide to contact the police, trained rape investigators are available to help you. The Campus Safety Team will assist you in notifying the Charlotte Mecklenburg Police Department if you choose to file a criminal complaint. All reports and complaints are kept confidential.

POLICY AND PROCEDURE FOR DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Statement of Standard for Disciplinary Action

The Seminary reaffirms the biblical principles set forth in its *Community Life Statement as it seeks to support students in their theological endeavors. The seminary's commitment to its mission statement requires that all students be afforded an environment which promotes intellectual and spiritual growth. To this end, the seminary reserves the right to discipline a student who is found in violation of any aspect of the Community Life Statement or any other institutional code of conduct that interferes with or limits the student's, as well as the community's, ability to fulfill their academic goals.

The purpose of a student disciplinary process is to determine if a student has engaged in misconduct, and, in those cases in which it is determined that the student has engaged in misconduct, to impose appropriate sanctions. The following procedures are employed in fulfilling this purpose.

*Community Life Statement Posted in Student Break Room

Procedure for Conducting an Informal Hearing

1. The Pastoral Guidance Committee will conduct an investigation of the allegations brought against a student. The investigation will include the following steps:
 - a. Confirm the name of the student in question.
 - b. Gather all material facts.
 - c. Determine alleged infraction as stated in the Community Life Statement or other published institutional code of conduct.
 - d. If necessary, take any appropriate actions including government and/or law enforcement agencies.
 - e. Seek legal counsel as deemed appropriate.
 - f. Keep thorough and complete documentation of investigative process.
2. The Chair of the Guidance Committee will notify the student in writing of the following:
 - a. A statement of alleged charges against him/her
 - b. The specific seminary policy or code of conduct which allegedly has been violated
 - c. The purported facts/information supporting the allegation
 - d. The establishment of an informal hearing
3. The Pastoral Guidance Committee will conduct an informal hearing with the student, using the following guidelines:
 - a. The student will be informed of the date, time, and location of the hearing, in writing, either by personal delivery or certified mail, at least five business days in advance. This information will also be provided to the person(s) who brought forth the alleged charges in case he/she desires to be present in the hearing, be required or be invited to be present in the hearing.
 - b. The entire case file and the names of any prospective witnesses will be available for inspection by the accused student during normal business hours in the Chief Operations Officer's office where non-academic student files are maintained.
 - c. The accused student may choose to be assisted by a family member or other individual. Those assisting the accused student will be given reasonable time to ask relevant questions of any individual appearing at the hearing, as well as to present relevant information. The student may also be accompanied by legal counsel, although the role of counsel will be limited to providing legal advice to the respective student. It will be done in a quiet manner that is not disruptive to the proceedings. A reasonable effort will be made to accommodate the schedule of any representative or advisor allowed to assist the student.
 - d. The accuser, if present in the hearing, may also be assisted by an advisor of his/her choosing.
 - e. The accused student will be expected to respond to questions asked by the Committee. Students who refuse to answer on grounds of the Fifth Amendment privilege may be informed that the Committee could draw a negative inference from his/her refusal, which might result in his/her dismissal from the seminary, in accordance with these standards and procedures.
 - f. The informal hearing may be conducted in the absence of the accused student who fails to appear, following proper notification of the hearing date, time and location.

- g. The hearing shall be tape-recorded by the Committee. The tape(s) shall be kept with the pertinent case file for as long as the case file is maintained by the Seminary. (A copy of the tape will be made and kept in the Dean of Students office.)
4. Immediately following the informal hearing, the Committee will meet for deliberations and render a written decision to the student within five business days after the completion of the informal hearing, except in the case of sexual assault, in which case the accused and the accuser will be notified within one business day.
5. The Committee has the authority to render any one of the following decisions/sanctions:
 - a. Further investigation culminating in another hearing.
 - b. Admonition. A formal admonition that an institutional standard has been violated and which does not become part of a student's permanent record, but that may be taken into account in judging the seriousness of any future violation.
 - c. Disciplinary Probation. A more serious admonition assigned for a definite amount of time, with the probation to continue until certain conditions stipulated by the Committee have been fulfilled. It implies that any future violation during that time, of whatever kind, may be grounds for suspension, or in especially serious cases, for dismissal from the seminary.
 - d. Suspension for a Definite Period. Removal from membership in the seminary community, including all student privileges for a specified period of time, with the suspension to continue until certain conditions stipulated by the Committee have been fulfilled. A suspension is noted on a student's official record only for the duration of the suspension.
 - e. Indefinite Suspension. Removal from membership in the seminary community including all student privileges for at least the period of time specified by suspension, with the suspension to continue until certain conditions stipulated by the Committee have been met, after which the Committee will reconvene to render a final decision. A suspension is noted on a student's official record only for the duration of the suspension. (Required to move out of seminary housing.)
 - f. Dismissal. Permanent removal from membership in the seminary community, including all student and alumni privileges without possibility of readmission. (Required to move out of seminary housing.) A dismissal is noted on student's official record.
6. If the student is suspended or dismissed, the written decision shall be mailed or personally delivered to the student within five business days after the completion of the hearing, except in the case of sexual assault, in which case the accused and the accuser will be notified within one business day. It shall contain a statement of reason resulting in the sanction. The accused student shall be asked to sign a form, for the record, indicating his/her understanding of the disciplinary action taken by the Committee. The accused, as well as the accuser, shall also be advised of the appeal process.
7. A confidential copy of the letter to the student(s) will be filed in the Dean of Students Office, and the Registrar's Office will be notified of the decision.
8. The Committee shall inform the accuser, if any, that the investigation has been completed and that a sanction has been imposed, except in the case of sexual assault, in which case procedure 6, above, will be followed.

Procedures for Appeal

In the event that the response, decision, or action being unacceptable to either party (the accused or the accuser), formal complaints can be appealed to the President's Office. Exceptions can apply where the Campus Safety Department advises other action be taken, as required by law.

1. If either student or accuser so desires, he/she may appeal the Guidance Committee's decision in writing within seven business days, following the notification of sanction, to the President of the Seminary.
2. The President will present his/her decision within seven business days to the student (or accuser), unless he/she appoints a review committee of his choosing, in which case, he/she will have 10 business days in which to respond.
3. The President's decision will be final.

Procedures for Student Departing the Seminary

1. If suspension or dismissal occurs during the course of the semester, tuition may be refunded to the student according to federal policy.
2. Appropriate notation shall be entered on the student's transcript and placed in his/her permanent file. The Registration office will follow normal procedure to notify the appropriate offices of the student's leave from the seminary.
3. If the student resides on campus, he/she may be given up to a 30-day notice to vacate the apartment and no more than seven days to move from the dormitory (date of dismissal will take into account the appeal process).

4. In the case of an international student (F-1 visa), as per SEVIS (Student Exchange and Visitor Information System) regulations, he/she must vacate immediately (i.e., no visa “grace period”), following the date of dismissal (date of dismissal will take into account the appeal process).

Deviations from Established Procedures

Reasonable deviations from these procedures (not to include sanctions) will not invalidate a decision or proceeding unless significant prejudice to the student may result.

COUNSELING AND OTHER SERVICES FOR VICTIMS OF SEXUAL ASSAULT or INTIMATE PARTNER VIOLENCE

The Dean’s office will assist rape, sexual assault and intimate partner violence victims and survivors in notification or referral to counseling and mental health services in the community.

SEXUAL ASSAULT VICTIMS’ OPTIONS FOR CHANGING ACADEMIC SITUATIONS

The Seminary will provide assistance in changing academic arrangements following a sexual offense if requested by the victim and if these changes are reasonably available.

CAMPUS SEX CRIMES PREVENTION ACT

The Federal Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act requires institutions of higher education to issue a statement advising the campus community where state law enforcement agency information concerning registered sex offenders may be obtained. The act also requires registered sex offenders to provide to appropriate state officials notice of each institution of higher education in that state at which the offender is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student.

Members of the seminary community may request information about sex offenders in North Carolina at the NC Sex Offender Registry with the NC Department of Justice, <http://sexoffender.ncdoj.gov/> or the Charlotte Mecklenburg Police Department at (704) 336-7600.

Information contained in the Sex Offender Registry shall not be used to commit a crime against the offender or to engage in illegal discrimination or harassment of an offender. Use and/or misuse of this information by individuals, groups or entities to commit criminal acts (to include, but not limited to, threats, intimidation, stalking, harassment) against other persons is subject to criminal prosecution.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT, SEXUAL ASSAULT, PROHIBITED SEXUAL CONTACT, DATING AND DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

This statement outlines Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary’s policy regarding interpersonal or intimate partner violence, which includes sexual assault, prohibited sexual contact, dating and domestic violence. (Also see Policy Statement Addressing Sex Offenses, the Student Handbook and Staff Handbook)

Policy Statement

Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary does not tolerate interpersonal or intimate partner violence, which includes sexual assault, prohibited sexual contact, dating and domestic violence in any form. Any acts that fall within the definitions of sexual assault, prohibited sexual contact, dating and domestic violence are prohibited at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary and are a violation of seminary policy, and potentially North Carolina and/or Federal Law. Violations of state criminal law for bodily harm related to interpersonal violence shall constitute violations of this policy, as well. Through this policy, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary is extending the traditional prohibitions of sexual assault and domestic violence under law and seminary policy to other forms of interpersonal violence including dating and intimate partner violence. This policy applies to all members of the Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary community, and includes, but is not limited to, faculty, staff, students, seminary visitors, volunteers, and vendors. It also applies to alleged acts of sexual assault, prohibited sexual contact, dating and domestic violence whether those acts occur on or off campus.

Appropriate disciplinary actions following the process outlined in the student or staff handbooks may be taken against any persons or groups engaging in these acts, up to and including expulsion from the seminary, termination of seminary employment, and termination of contracts/agreements with that person(s) or group(s). In addition, the seminary may terminate or suspend its relationship and associated privileges with any perpetrator of interpersonal or intimate partner violence covered by this policy, including but not limited to visitors, volunteers, vendors and other such guests of seminary. To this end, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary expressly reserves its rights to revoke the privilege, right and/or permission to anyone to be physically present on-campus, participate in seminary activities, and use seminary facilities or resources in order to carry out the intent and purposes of this policy.

The seminary may refer any alleged perpetrator of interpersonal or intimate partner violence to law enforcement.

The standard for determining whether a violation of this policy exists shall be based upon the preponderance of the evidence standard of the victim of an act of interpersonal or intimate partner violence.

DEFINITION OF TERMS

Domestic Violence:

Physically, sexually, and/or psychologically abusive behavior against a family member or household member is considered domestic violence. Such behavior may arise in the form of a direct violent act, or indirectly as acts that expressly or implicitly threaten violence. Family or household members include: spouses, former spouses, domestic partners, parents, children, stepchildren, and other persons related by blood or by prior marriage. This definition also includes persons who share or formerly shared a common residence (including residence hall roommates), persons who have or allegedly have a child in common, persons who share or allegedly share a blood relationship through a child.

Dating Violence:

A form of domestic violence that includes persons who have or have had a dating relationship. Dating violence occurs when one partner attempts to maintain power and control over the other through one or more forms of abuse, including sexual, physical, verbal, and emotional abuse. Dating violence affects both females and males, and does not discriminate by racial, social, or economic background (Also see Acquaintance Rape).

Partner Violence:

Sexual or psychological harm or threat of harm by a current or former partner primarily motivated by the desire to obtain power and control in order to harm another.

Abusive behavior:

Physical violence of any nature against any person, on or off campus, other than for self-defense. This includes fighting; assault; battery; the use of a knife, gun, or other weapon; physical abuse; restraining or transporting someone against his/her will; or any action that threatens or endangers the physical health or safety of any person or causes reasonable apprehension of such harm. Persistent, severe, and/or pervasive threats of abuse, intimidation, coercion, bullying and/or other conduct that threatens or endangers the mental or physical health or safety of any person or causes reasonable apprehension of such harm.

Prohibited Sexual Contact:

At Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, prohibited sexual contact is behavior related to sexual activities or sexual contact between at least two individuals that is accomplished through force or the threat of force, or when the victim is unable, under the circumstances, to give clear and knowing consent. Prohibited sexual contact includes, but is not limited to, sexual assault and sex abuse and is prohibited regardless of sexual orientation, gender, or gender expression of the perpetrator or the victim.

Force or threat of force:

The use of force or violence, or the threat of force or violence, including but not limited to the following situations:

- 1) when the accused threatens to use force or violence on the victim or on any other person, and the victim under the circumstances reasonably believed that the accused has the ability to execute that threat; or
- 2) when the accused has overcome the victim by use of superior strength or size, physical restraint, or physical confinement.

Consent:

There must be consent to engage in any and all sexual behaviors Consent is hearing the word "yes." It is not the absence of hearing "no."

Willingly giving permission or agreement to a sexual act, without threat of harm. Consent is an informed agreement to participate in an act, communicated verbally or through physical participation, that is not achieved through manipulation, intimidation, or coercion of any kind or given by one who is incapable of giving clear and knowing consent, by reason of the individual's age, being under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or otherwise. The manner of dress of the victim at the time of the offense does not constitute consent. Individuals under the age of 16 in Massachusetts are incapable of giving consent under any circumstances. Nothing in this provision constitutes a waiver or in any way impairs the application of state law related to the ability of a person to consent.

Coercion:

To compel or force one to act based on pressure, harassment, threats, or intimidation.

Mentally or physically incapable person:

A person who is temporarily or permanently incapable of making decisions for any reason or is otherwise unable to give clear and knowing consent. This may be caused by, but is not limited to, administration or use of alcohol or other drugs.

Sexual Assault:

When a person commits an act of sexual penetration

- 1) by the use of force or threat of force, or
- 2) when the accused knew that the victim was unable to understand the nature of the act or was unable to give knowing consent. Rape is a form of sexual assault.

Rape:

A form of sexual assault. Rape is another word for penetration (oral, anal, or vaginal) that is forced on another person through threats to harm that person or another, intimidation, coercion, or lack of consent.

Acquaintance Rape:

A sex crime committed by someone who knows the victim. The perpetrator could be a friend, classmate, relative, co-worker. As a sex crime, acquaintance rape includes forced, manipulated, or coerced sexual contact.

Sexual Abuse:

When a person commits an act of sexual misconduct:

- 1) by the use of force or threat of force or
- 2) when the accused knew that the victim was unable to understand the nature of the act or was unable to give knowing consent.

Sexual Harassment:

Occurs when sexual behavior or requests for sexual favors are made either explicitly or implicitly as a term or condition of employment or educational performance, or are made as the basis of employment or academic decisions affecting the individual as an employee or a student, or have the express purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work/academic performance or create an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or academic environment.

Process and Disciplinary Actions

It is the policy of the seminary to hold perpetrators of interpersonal and intimate partner violence, which includes sexual assault, prohibited sexual contact, dating and domestic violence in any form, accountable for their actions through appropriate student conduct or personnel procedures, and by working with community agencies and law enforcement as appropriate. (For detailed information regarding the disciplinary process and actions please see the Policy Statement Addressing Sex Offenses, Student Handbook and Staff Handbook)

For students:

Appropriate disciplinary actions for substantiated violations of this policy, up to and including dismissal, will be imposed in accordance with the Community Life Statement and Student Handbook.

For faculty and staff:

Appropriate disciplinary actions for substantiated violations of this policy, up to and including termination, will be imposed in accordance with applicable seminary policies and personnel procedures, listed in the staff handbook.

For everyone:

Seminary disciplinary procedures are independent of any and all criminal procedures and proceedings. In all cases, the seminary reserves the right to refer cases to law enforcement for criminal prosecution or to pursue disciplinary actions regardless of criminal prosecution. Violations of this policy by a visitor, volunteer, or vendor may also result in the termination of pre-existing or future business relationships.

Reporting Procedures

Should there be an immediate risk of imminent harm, or disruption to the campus community, any seminary community member is encouraged to call 9-1-1 immediately or contact the Campus Operations Director at 704-527-9909 during business hours.

For purposes of reporting, or for more information on victims' or alleged perpetrators' rights, the following procedures can be followed. Victims of sexual assault, prohibited sexual contact, dating and domestic violence on or at any seminary-sponsored event or activity have the option to and are encouraged to contact the Department of Public Safety, Campus Safety. Additionally, victims have the right to access assistance and should be referred to the following resources which are available to help in crisis situations.

The option to confidentially report a crime is also available to victims or survivors. (See, Policy Statement for Reporting of Crimes on a Voluntary and Confidential Basis).

If the alleged perpetrator is a faculty or staff member:

In cases involving a student as the alleged perpetrator, contact Human Resources at 978-646-4052.

If the alleged perpetrator is a student:

In cases involving a student as the alleged perpetrator, contact the Dean of Students at 704-940-5835.

If the alleged perpetrator is a vendor, visitor, volunteer, or other non-faculty, staff, or student individual:

In cases involving the above-listed individuals, contact the Campus Safety Team at 704-940-5803 and ask for a team member. Depending upon the relationships that this individual has with the seminary, there may need to be additional reporting to affected seminary departments and employees.

NOTE: The process and reporting procedures listed here in no way prohibit the seminary from employing other appropriate mechanisms to address sexual assault, prohibited sexual contact and dating and domestic violence.

STALKING

Stalking incidents are occurring at an alarming rate on the nation's college campuses. It is a crime that happens to men and women of all races/ethnicities, religions, ages, abilities, sexual orientations, and sexual identity. It is a crime that can affect every aspect of a victim's life. Stalking often begins with phone calls, emails, social networking posts and/or letters, and can sometimes escalate to violence.

Policy Statement

Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary is determined to provide a campus environment free of violence for all members of the campus community. For this reason, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary does not tolerate stalking. Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary is also committed to supporting victims of stalking through the appropriate provision of safety and support services. This policy applies equally to all students, staff and faculty of Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary community.

Stalking is a crime in Massachusetts and is subject to criminal prosecution. Students, staff or faculty perpetrating such acts of violence will be subject to disciplinary action policy through the Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary student or staff handbooks. This may include disciplinary action from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary and/or law enforcement involvement simultaneously.

Definition of Stalking

Stalking is a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to feel fear. Course of conduct is defined as "a pattern of actions composed of more than one act over a period of time, however short, evidencing a continuity of conduct."

The term "stalking" (from 42 USC ss 13925) means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to —

- (A) fear for his or her safety or the safety of others;
- or
- (B) suffer substantial emotional distress.

In North Carolina such conduct are Class A1 misdemeanor. Stalking is generally when someone repeatedly follows or harasses you with the intent to place you in reasonable fear for your safety or your immediate family's safety or to cause you emotional distress (harm).

 NCGS § 50C-1(4), (6) & (7)

Stalking Behaviors

Stalking includes any behaviors or activities occurring on more than one occasion that collectively instill fear in a victim, and/or threaten her or his safety, mental health, or physical health.

Such behaviors and activities may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Non-consensual communication, including face-to-face communication, telephone calls, voice messages, e-mails, written letters, gifts, or any other communications that are undesired and place another person in fear.
- Use of online, electronic, or digital technologies, including:
 - Posting of pictures or information in chat rooms or on Web sites
 - Sending unwanted/unsolicited email or talk requests
 - Posting private or public messages on Internet sites, social networking sites, and/or school bulletin boards
 - Installing spyware on a victim's computer
 - Using Global Positioning Systems (GPS) to monitor a victim

- Pursuing, following, waiting, or showing up uninvited at or near a residence, workplace, classroom, or other places frequented by the victim
- Surveillance or other types of observation, including staring or “peeping”
- Trespassing
- Vandalism
- Non-consensual touching
- Direct verbal or physical threats
- Gathering information about an individual from friends, family, and/or co-workers
- Threats to harm self or others
- Defamation – lying to others about the victim

Reporting Stalking

Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary encourages reporting of all incidents of stalking to law enforcement authorities, and respects that whether or not to report to the police is a decision that the victim needs to make. Campus Safety, Dean of Students and Human Resources (for staff) are available to inform victims of the reporting procedures and offer appropriate referrals. Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary offers services to victims even if they choose not to report the incidents. Campus Safety Team, and Human Resources (for staff) provides services and information for victims in a safe, supportive, and confidential setting. In some circumstances, a victim may wish to seek an order of protection from a court of appropriate jurisdiction against the alleged perpetrator. Victims may also seek restriction of access to Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary by non-students or non-employees in certain circumstances.

TO REPORT STALKING

Call Charlotte Mecklenburg Police – 9-1-1

Call Campus Safety Team – 704-940-5803

Call Human Resources (for staff) – 978-646-4052

In certain instances, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary may need to report an incident to law enforcement authorities. Such circumstances include any incidents that warrant the undertaking of additional safety and security measures for the protection of the victim and the campus community or other situations in which there is clear and imminent danger, and when a weapon may be involved. However, it is crucial in these circumstances to consult with Campus Safety, or Human Resources (for staff), since reporting may compromise the safety of the victim. Personal safety concerns are often very important for stalking victims. Crisis intervention and victim safety concerns will take precedence.

Safety for Victims of Stalking

Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary is committed to supporting victims of stalking by providing the necessary safety and support services. Student victims of stalking are entitled to reasonable accommodations, if possible. Due to the complex nature of this problem, the student victim may need additional assistance in obtaining one or more of the following:

- No-contact order
- Change in an academic schedule
- Provision of alternative housing opportunities
- The imposition of an interim suspension on the accused
- The provision of resources for medical and/or psychological support.

For assistance obtaining these safety accommodations, please contact the Dean of Students at 704-940-5835.

If safety is an immediate concern, encourage the victim to contact law enforcement or Campus Safety Team at 704-940-5803 for assistance.

Prevention and Awareness Campaigns

The institution provides ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns for all students and employees in compliance with Title IX. These campaigns promote awareness of sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking, while outlining institutional policies and reporting procedures. Training emphasizes bystander intervention strategies, risk reduction, individual rights, and available support resources. Programs are delivered through orientations, employee trainings, online modules, and campus-wide initiatives to foster a safe, respectful, and inclusive campus environment.

POLICY ADDRESSING COUNSELORS

Reporting Procedure:

Student Life Services serves as a supporting resource to students who may need assistance in locating counseling services for themselves and their families on such issues as personal development, spiritual concerns, relational adjustments, and marital concerns. Students Life Students acts as a crisis intervention and referral source. Since mental health coverage is often provided with health insurance, students are encouraged to obtain adequate protection in selecting an insurance policy. Individuals who demonstrate financial need beyond insurance coverage may be eligible to receive a subsidy from the Seminary for necessary counseling through the Student Life Services office. Students who desire help in issues not requiring the credentials of a trained counselor are encouraged to talk to the Pastoral Counselor, their faculty advisor, the Dean of Students, or their pastor.

CLERY ACT note regarding campus counselors:

As a result of the negotiated rulemaking process which followed the signing into law, the 1998 amendments to 20 U.S.C. Section 1092 (f), clarification was given to those considered to be campus security authorities. Campus "Pastoral Counselors" and Campus "Professional Counselors" *, when acting as such, are not considered to be a campus security authority and are not required to report crimes for inclusion into the annual disclosure of crime statistics. As a matter of policy, they are encouraged, if and when they deem it appropriate, to inform persons being counseled of the procedures to report crimes on a voluntary basis for inclusion into the annual crime statistics.

WEAPONS

- It is strictly prohibited to bring firearms or any proscribed weapons onto the campus or into any building (with the exception of authorized law enforcement personnel).
- The use of any type of hunting or target weapon is also prohibited on campus.

FIREWORKS

Fireworks, firecrackers and similar explosives are not prohibited by state law however they are prohibited on campus.

SECURITY FOR CAMPUS FACILITIES

The campus building is accessible to members of the Seminary community, guests and visitors during normal business hours. The general public has access to the campus grounds, the library, academic and administrative facilities, and the Chapel during normal business hours and for most special events. The campus building is locked over night for safety and security.

SECURITY & THE FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

The Facilities Department maintains the Seminary building and grounds. It inspects campus facilities and promptly addresses any issues affecting safety and security. The Campus Safety Team assists the Facilities Department by reporting potential safety and security issues found while on duty. Safety and security hazards may also be reported by telephone or in writing to the Facilities Department or the Campus Safety Team.

REPORTING CRIME

Members of the Seminary community, visitors and guests are strongly encouraged to report any emergencies and criminal activity to the Campus Safety Team and or the Charlotte Mecklenburg Police Department.

To report an emergency from any Seminary extension phone or outside phone, dial 911.

Information regarding criminal activity that poses no immediate threat or danger may be reported by calling the Campus Safety Team at 704-940-5803. Upon receipt of a call, Campus Safety is dispatched immediately to the location of the complaint. Campus Safety will also prepare and submit incident reports for the Public Safety Department and or contact local Law Enforcement.

REPORTING CRIMES ON A VOLUNTARY AND CONFIDENTIAL BASIS

If you are the victim of a crime and do not want to pursue action within Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary System or the criminal justice system, you may still want to consider making a confidential report. With your permission, the Director, Department of Public Safety, Campus Safety can file a report of the details of the incident without revealing your identity. The purpose of a confidential report is to comply with your wish to keep the matter confidential while taking steps to ensure the future safety of yourself and others. With such information, the Seminary can keep an accurate record of the number of incidents involving students, determine where there is a pattern of crime with regard to a particular location, method or assailant, and alert the campus community to potential danger. Reports filed in this manner are counted and disclosed in the annual crime statistics (Clery Act) for the institution.

Protective Measures

The institution will offer appropriate and reasonable protective measures to both the complainant and the respondent, as needed, to ensure safety, fairness, and equal access to educational programs and activities. Protective measures may include, but are not limited to, no-contact directives; adjustments to academic, housing, or work schedules; modifications to class participation or testing environments; restrictions from campus events or facilities; increased security or campus escorts; interim suspensions where necessary; and referrals to counseling, health, or other support services. These measures are individualized, provided without fee or penalty, and remain available regardless of whether a formal complaint is filed.

ACCURATE AND PROMPT CRIME REPORTING

Community members, students, faculty, staff, and guests are encouraged to report all crimes and public safety related incidents to the Campus Safety Team in a timely manner.

1. To report a crime in progress or an emergency on the campus, call 911 IMMEDIATELY.
2. To report a non-emergency security or public safety related matter, call the Campus Safety Team, 704-940-5803

In response to a call, the Campus Safety Team will take the required action, dispatching a team member or asking the victim to report to the Campus Manager's Office, to file an incident report.

All Campus Safety incident reports are forwarded to the Dean of Students office for review. Local Law enforcement will investigate an incident when it is deemed appropriate. Additional information obtained via the investigation will also be forwarded to the Dean of Students, in Student Life Services. If assistance is required from local law enforcement the Campus Safety Team will contact the Charlotte Mecklenburg Police Department. If a crime of any nature occurs the Campus Safety Team will immediately offer any assistance to the victim and ensure prompt response from medical and law enforcement.

This publication contains information about on-campus and off-campus resources. The information is made available to the Gordon-Conwell community members in the event that they become the victim of a crime.

Crimes should be reported to the Campus Safety Team to ensure inclusion in the annual crime statistics and to aid in providing timely notices to the Seminary community, when appropriate.

MONITORING AND RECORDING OFF-CAMPUS CRIMINAL ACTIVITY THROUGH LOCAL POLICE.

Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, Charlotte Campus does not monitor and record student off-campus criminal activity through the local police unless informed by the Charlotte Mecklenburg Police Department of a serious incident with a student.

SECURITY AWARENESS

Students are informed of local crime statistics and where to find the information on campus via e-mail and posting the statistics in the student break room. Students are also reminded via e-mail and at integrative seminars of simple safety precautions while on campus such as securing vehicles, being aware of their surroundings and so forth.

A common theme of all awareness and crime prevention information is to encourage students and employees to be aware of their responsibility for their own security and the security of others. The Charlotte campus offers annual Active Shooter training and fire drills

When time is of the essence, information is released to the Seminary community through security alerts posted prominently throughout campus, via email as well as a voice mail broadcasting system.

TIMELY WARNINGS

In the event that a situation arises, either on or off campus, that, in the judgment of the Campus Manager, in conjunction with the appropriate administrative personnel, constitutes an ongoing or continuing threat, a campus wide "timely warning" will be issued.

The warning will be issued through the Seminary e-mail system to students, faculty and staff. Depending on the particular circumstances of the crime, especially in all situations that could pose an immediate threat to the community and individuals, the Campus Safety Team may also post a notice or notices campus-wide providing the Seminary community with more immediate notification. In such instances, a copy of the notice is posted at the front door of academic building on campus, and the student bulletin board in the break room. Anyone with information warranting a timely warning should report the circumstances to the Director of Operations, by phone (704-940-5803) or in person at the Director of Operations in Administration.

OTHER MEANS OF NOTIFICATION

- Monitored Systems

All fire alarms result in an automatic response by the Charlotte Mecklenburg Fire Department. The Campus Safety Team and other emergency services respond as well.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EVACUATION PLANS

Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary's Charlotte Campus Emergency Evacuation Plan has been created in an effort to assist students, faculty and staff that occupy campus buildings in preparing for building emergencies.

Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary has the following Emergency Response and Evacuation plans in place for the Charlotte campus:

- Campus Emergency Evacuation Plan
- Classrooms are posted with Emergency Response Quick Guides.
- Campus Short and Long-Term Evacuation Contingency Plan
- Campus Fire Safety Right-To-Know
- Safety Coordinators are assigned to office and Library
- A Campus Safety Team

An email notification is sent annually to the Charlotte campus community informing students, faculty and staff to review the campus Emergency Evacuation Plans. Testing of the Emergency Response and Evacuation Plan is conducted annually by the Campus Safety Team.

CAMPUS FIRE SAFETY and RIGHT-TO-KNOW

Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary is concerned about the safety of every individual on campus and, therefore, has very strict fire safety regulations.

Fire and life safety programs must receive community-wide support to be effective. Cooperation from students and residents at fire drills, announced and unannounced, is expected.

Students and residents who do not observe these regulations jeopardize the safety of others on this campus and, therefore, will be subject to disciplinary action.

Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary is in compliance with the Campus Fire Safety Right-to-Know Regulations from the Higher Education Act (HR 4137), which recently passed Congress and was signed into law.

CAMPUS FIRE LOG

A Campus Fire Log of at least the previous one hundred and twenty (120) days is maintained and posted for public review in the Administrative office.

ALL Campus Fire reports or incidents are recorded on the Campus Fire Log for review within 2 business days of the report or incident.
