

The Gordon-Conwell Institute (GCI) serves and equips God's missionary people for the renewal of the Church and its faithful participation in God's mission. GCI is comprised of multiple centers, initiatives, and partnerships who support the Church and equip Kingdom workers with practical skills to impact the world.

Center for the Study of Global Christianity

The Center for the Study of Global Christianity is proud to announce three new publications: From Nairobi to the World: David B. Barrett and the Re-Imagining of World Christianity by Dr. Gina Zurlo; Introducing Spirit-Empowered Christianity: The Global Pentecostal & Charismatic Movements in the 21st Century by Dr. Todd Johnson and Dr. Gina Zurlo; and Christianity in North America edited by Dr. Kenneth Ross, Dr. Grace Ji-Sun Kim, and Dr. Todd Johnson.

In May, Dr. Gina Zurlo visited the Vatican and presented Pope Francis with a copy of the World Christian Encyclopedia, 3rd edition, a book she co-authored with Dr. Todd Johnson. Dr. Zurlo received the American Academy of Religion Individual Research Grant for a project titled, "Putting the Pacific Islands on the Map: Gender, Climate, and Christianity."

Dr. Gina Zurlo and Dr. Todd Johnson, participated in a variety of speaking engagements this summer around the world including the Empowered21 conference in The Netherlands; the Oxford Center for Mission Studies 40th anniversary celebration in the United Kingdom; the annual Ecumenical Summer Seminar in France; and the annual New Wilmington Mission Conference in Pennsylvania.

Haddon W. Robinson Center for Preaching

The Haddon W. Robinson Center for Preaching hosted the Preacher's College in June, facilitated by Gordon-Conwell preaching faculty Dr. Jeffrey Arthurs and Dr. Patricia Batten, served 30 participants. Also, the Haddon Robinson Sermon Archive will be available on the Center for Preaching's webpage soon.

Haynes Center for Black Christian Leadership

The Haynes Center for Black Christian Leadership is a new center that has four primary areas of focus: Liturgy (preaching and worship), Outreach (evangelism and church planting), Theology (Christian thought), and Advocacy (engagement in the public square). Plans are underway for the Center's expansion, including the forthcoming Haynes Fellows Program which will specialize in Black Christian leadership development.

J. Christy Wilson Jr. Center for World Missions

The J. Christy Wilson Jr. Center for World Missions is delighted to welcome two new families who have been approved to participate in the Global Scholars and Practitioners in Residence \(GSPiR\) program in the coming months. In other news, this summer, several members of the Gordon-Conwell community traveled to Thailand to participate in Arise Asia, a conference that is focused on developing young global church leaders, particularly in Asia and the Middle East. The students who attended the conference will share their experiences during Global Missions Week, which will be held in October.

Mockler Center for Faith and Ethics in the Public Square

The Mockler Center for Faith and Ethics in the Public Square held the Ockenga Fellows residency on Faith and Globalization in June. The fellows engaged with Christian thought-leaders and practitioners who work in cross-cultural and multi-national settings, including Dr. Jono Quick, who worked at the cutting edge of world health during the COVID19 pandemic.
