

When Your Church Family Joins the Partnership Program

Together, you will equip the next generation of pastors, church leaders, evangelists, missionaries, and other servants of the Kingdom.

Together, you will raise up leaders who are grounded in biblical principles with the ability to engage our culture for Christ.

Together, you will help students go directly into ministry after graduation, less burdened by debt and equipped with fundraising and stewardship skills.

“The Partnership Program prepared me for ministry intellectually, spiritually, relationally, and financially. And I learned to engage and develop relationships with supporters who would pray diligently with me and for me.... At the end of the day, going into ministry debt-free was a gift I will never forget!”

PROGRAM

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

An Invitation from the President

In 2 Corinthians 8, Paul challenged the church to invest in those God has called into His service. I believe that the Partnership Program here at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary (GCTS) is an innovative, effective way for you and your church to do just that.

Because of church partners and friends like you who pray and give financially, each student in the Partnership Program receives a full-tuition scholarship. Alongside their biblical and theological education, we teach them how to raise funds for ministry by cultivating relationships with people who believe in their calling.

By the time they graduate, our students know how to handle their personal finances and manage fundraising for a ministry or church. These skills are rarely taught as part of a seminary degree, and yet they are absolutely necessary for survival in the ministry.

Ultimately, your congregation will help launch these dedicated men and women into a lifetime of fruitful Christian service less encumbered by educational debt. As a church family, you will share in their journey through special monthly updates, celebrating ministry milestones and praying for specific needs.

So please, read this information carefully. Share this opportunity with your church family, and pray together about how God would have you give. Then complete the Partnership Program reply form and return it to us.

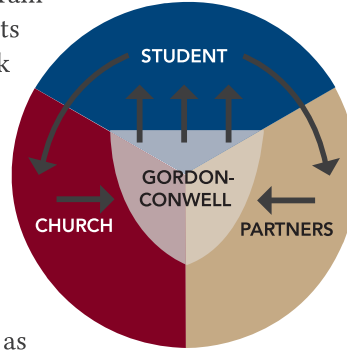

Invest in the life and ministry of a future Christian leader today!
